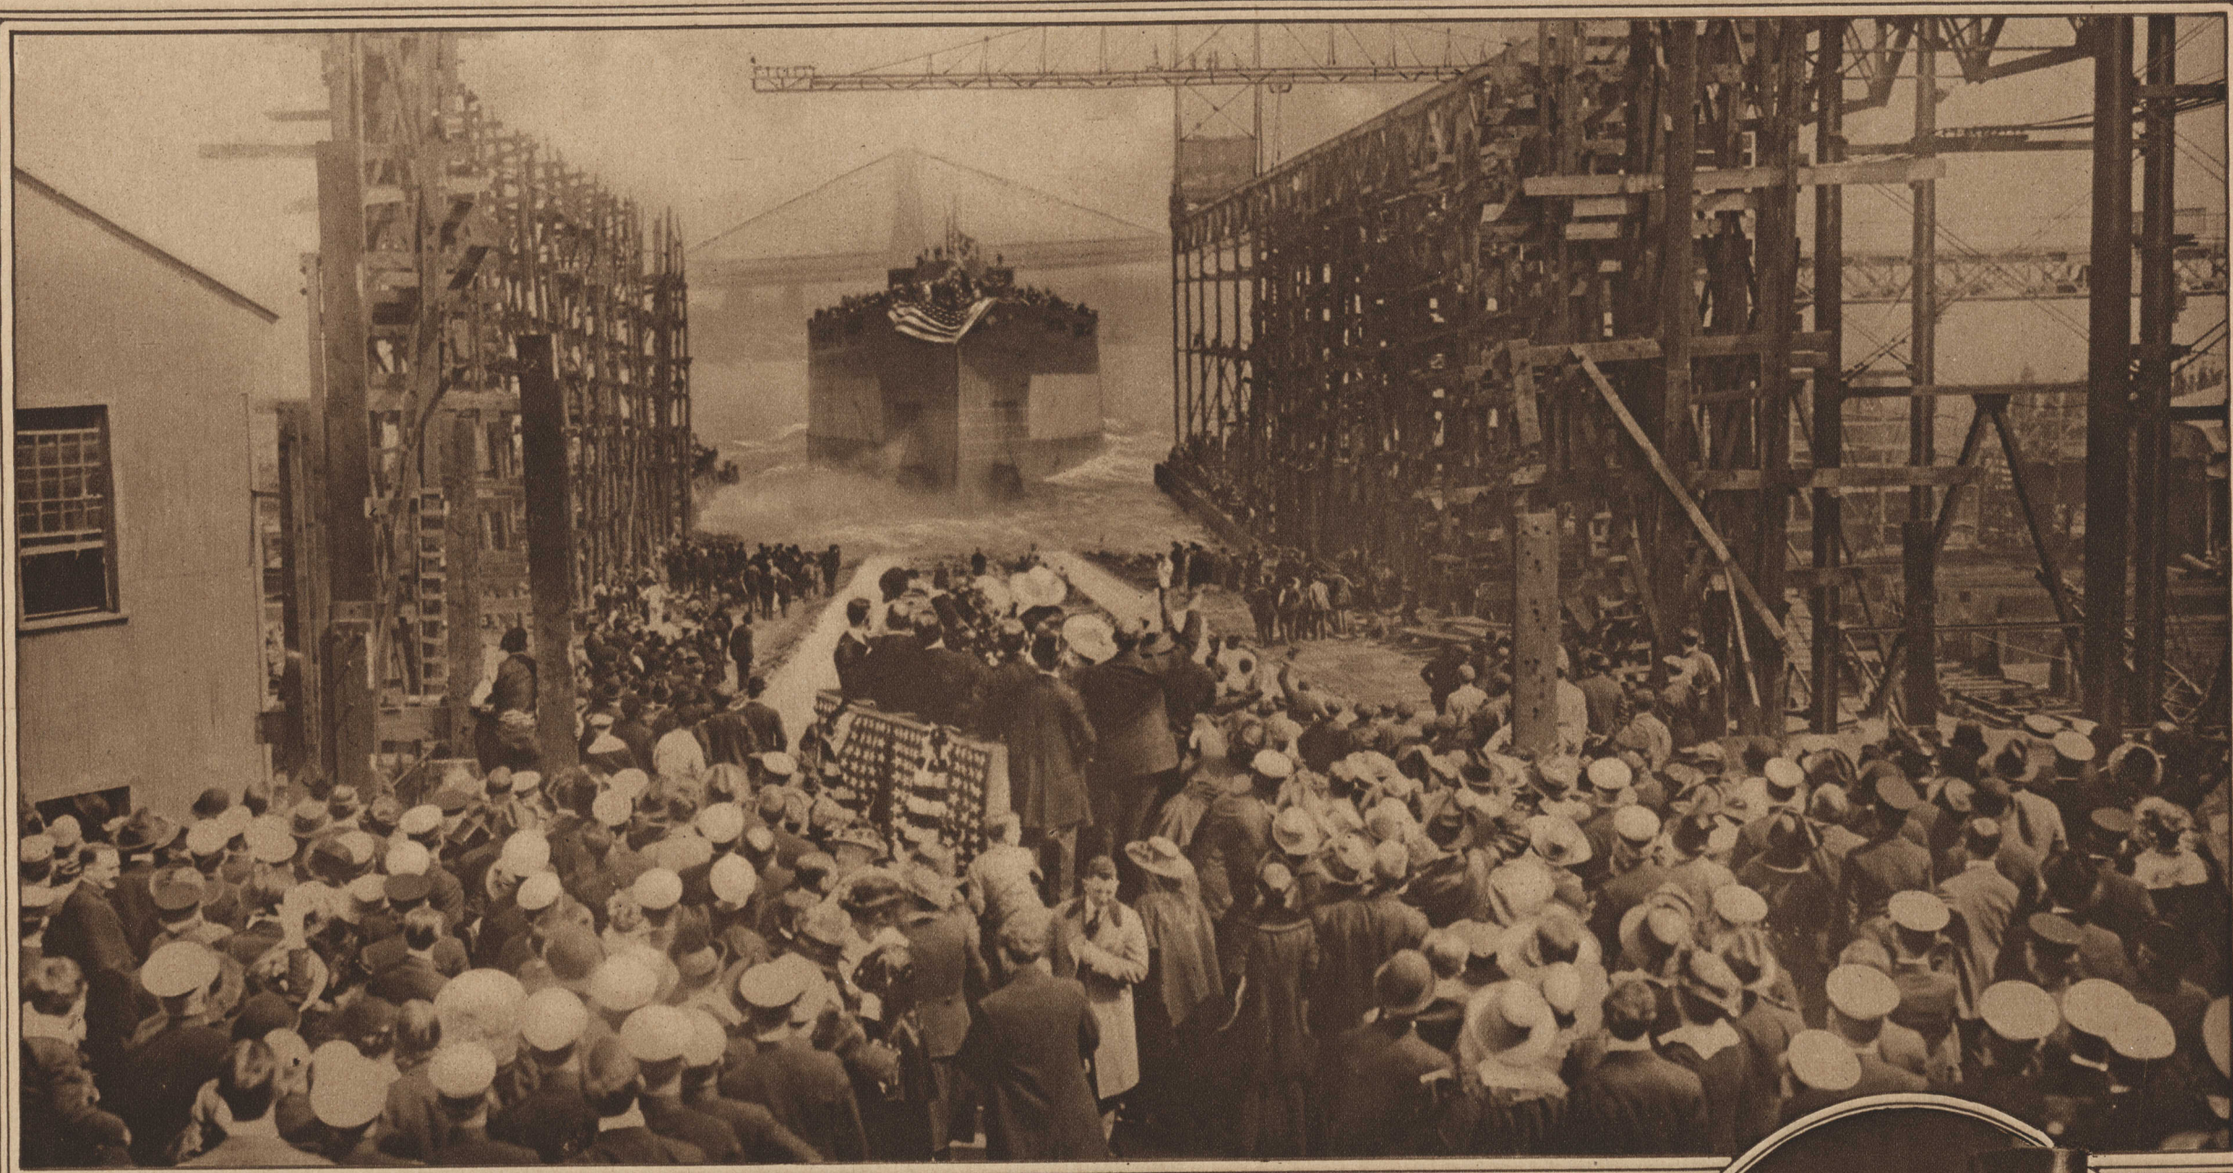
Picture Section,
Rotogravure: Part 5

The New York Times

Sunday,
April 29, 1917



LAUNCHING AT THE BROOKLYN NAVY YARD ON LAST MONDAY OF THE UNITED STATES SUPERDREADNOUGHT NEW MEXICO, NEWEST, AND, WITH HER SISTER SHIPS, THE LARGEST AND MOST POWERFUL VESSEL IN THE NAVY, AND THE WORLD'S FIRST DREADNOUGHT TO BE DRIVEN BY ELECTRIC POWER. (Times Photo Service.)

MISSES MARGARET DA BACA AND VIRGINIA CARR, SPONSORS FOR THE NEW DREADNOUGHT, AND MEMBERS OF THE LAUNCHING PARTY WHICH CAME FROM NEW MEXICO FOR THE CEREMONY. (Times Photo Service.)

GENERAL ALEC MACDOUGAL, A Native of Greenwich, Conn., Who Has Been Made a Brigadier General in the Canadian Forestry Corps, the First American to Reach That Rank Since the War Began.

RIGHT HON. ARTHUR JAMES BALFOUR, GREAT BRITAIN'S SPECIAL COMMISSIONER TO THE UNITED STATES, AND SECRETARY OF STATE ROBERT LANSING ON THEIR WAY TO THE WHITE HOUSE TO CALL ON THE PRESIDENT. (Photo © G. V. Buck From Underwood & Underwood.)

PEDESTRIANS QUICK TO DOFF THEIR HATS AS PRESIDENT AND MRS. WILSON PASS OUT OF THE WHITE HOUSE GATES FOR THEIR DAILY DRIVE. (Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

FRANKLIN MACVEAGH RESIDENCE, WASHINGTON, OCCUPIED BY MR. BALFOUR AND HIS PERSONAL PARTY DURING THE BRITISH COMMISSION'S STAY IN AMERICA. The British Flag Flies Over the Main Entrance, with American Soldiers Always on Guard. (Photo © by Harris & Ewing. From Paul Thompson.)