Picture Section,
Rotogravure: Part 5

The New York Times

Sunday,
April 8, 1917

C. STUART PATTERSON, BANKER AND FORMER PRESIDENT OF THE PHILADELPHIA UNION LEAGUE CLUB, ADDRESSING THE GREAT PATRIOTIC MASS MEETING IN INDEPENDENCE SQUARE A WEEK AGO YESTERDAY.
Seated on the Platform Behind and to the Left of the Speaker Are United States Senators Boies Penrose and Hiram W. Johnson, Mayor Smith of Philadelphia, Edgar F. Smith, Provost of the University of Pennsylvania, and Lieutenant General S. B. M. Young, Retired.
(Photo by H. D. Jones.)

MISS JEANNETTE RANKIN,
"The Lady from Montana," with One of Her Many Bouquets Received on Last Monday, When She Took Her Seat in Congress as the First Woman Ever Elected to That Body.

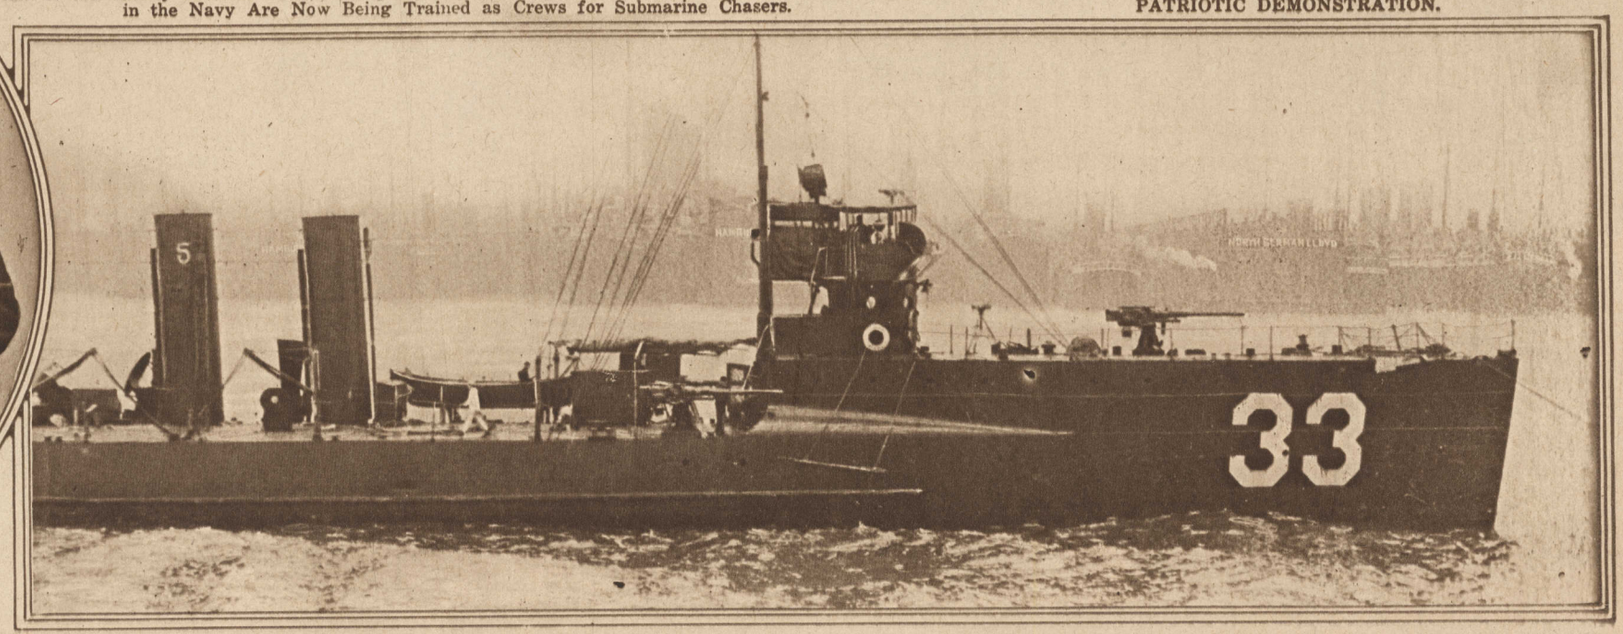
HOGG, GENNERT, AND GREY, ALL CRACK PRINCETON ATHLETES, AND HOGG
Captain of the Varsity Football Team, Taking the Oath of Allegiance at Newport, Where Student Volunteers in the Navy Are Now Being Trained as Crews for Submarine Chasers.

(Photos © by International Film Service.)

UNITED STATES SENATOR HIRAM W. JOHNSON SPEAKING IN FRONT OF INDEPENDENCE HALL A WEEK AGO, WHEN "ALL PHILADELPHIA" TURNED OUT IN PATRIOTIC DEMONSTRATION.

(Times Photo Service.)

GOVERNOR CHARLES S. WHITMAN WELCOMED BY JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, JR.
At the "Billy" Sunday Tabernacle on Last Sunday Afternoon, When the Governor Made the Principal Address at the Dedication of the Building.



UNITED STATES TORPEDO BOAT DESTROYER ON GUARD BEFORE THE SHIPS OF THE HAMBURG-AMERICAN AND NORTH GERMAN LLOYD LINES LYING AT THEIR PIERS IN HOBOKEN.
(Photo © Underwood & Underwood.)