NOTES.

I. The Postmaster-General may expedite the mails and alter the times of arrival and departure at any time during the continuance of the contracts, he previously stipulating an adequate compensation for any extra-expence that may be occasioned thereby.

II. Fifteen minutes shall be allowed for opening and closing the mail at all offices where no particular time is specified.

III. For every thirty minutes delay (unavoidable accidents excepted) in arriving after the times prescribed in any contract, the contractor shall forfeit one dollar; and if the delay continue until the departure of any depending mail, whereby the mails destined for such depending mail lose a trip, an additional forfeiture of five dollars shall be incurred.

IV. Newspapers as well as letters are to be sent in the mails: and if any person, making proposals, desires to carry newspapers other than those conveyed in the mail, for his own emolument, he must state in his proposals, for what sum he will carry it with that emolument and for what sum without that emolument.

V. Should any person, making proposals, desire an alteration of the times of arrival and departure above specified, he must state in his proposals, the alterations desired, and the difference they will make in the terms of the contract.

VI. Persons making proposals are desired to state their prices by the year. Those who contract will receive their pay quarterly, in the months of February, May, August, and November, one month after the expiration of each quarter.

VII. No other than a free white person shall be employed to convey the mail.

VIII. Where the proposer intends to convey the mail in the body of a stage carriage, he is desired to state it in his proposals.

IX. The Postmaster-General reserves to himself the right of declaring any contract at an end whenever three failures happen which amount to the loss of a trip each.

X. The contracts for the above routes are to be in operation on the first day of October next, and to continue in force for one year, from that time, excepting such routes as have a particular note respecting the continuance of the contract.

FOR SALE.

A TRACT of land containing 2,500 acres lying immediately on the river Potowmac, in the county of Northumberland, Virginia, late the residence of PRESLEY THORNTON, Esq. Seventeen hundred acres of which are of the most valuable kind of low ground on the river; between three and four hundred acres heavily timbered, the remainder is wavy high an extremely productive. The soil of this tract is equal to any in the state for cultivation of corn, wheat, tobacco, timothy, and small grain of all kinds. On this tract are a large commodious two story brick mansion house and two offices, a large brick stable, a valuable barn, cow house and many other out houses, all in good repair. The orchards and garden contain a variety of valuable fruit trees, and the waters abound with excellent fish and oysters. It is situated about a day's sail from Alexandria, Baltimore or Norfolk.—There are two good mill seats for grist, or sawmills on this estate, and plenty of cedar and chesnut timber, exclusive of the heavy timber which if sawed up into scantling will command a price in the City of Washington, nearly equal to the value of the land.

The terms will be made easy to the purchaser or purchasers, and the tract will be divided into two or more plantations if necessary.—Apply to

WAR DEPARTMENT,
May 24, 1802.

Notice is hereby given,

THAT separate proposals will be received at the office of the Secretary for the Department of War, until the expiration of the 31st day of July next ensuing, for the supply of all rations, which may be required for the use of the United States, from the 1st day of October, 1802, until the 30th day of September 1803, both days inclusive, at the following places, viz.

First—At Niagara, at Detroit, at Michilimakinac, and at Fort Wayne.

Second—At Cincinnati and at Vincennes.

Third—At Fort Massac, near the mouth of the Ohio, and Kaskaskias.

Fourth—At South West Point, Tellico, Knoxville, and on the road from Nashville to the line between the Chickasaws and Choctaws, and any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the state of Tennessee.

Fifth—At the Chickasaw Bluffs, Natchez, Fort Adams, Mobile, and on the road from Natchez to the boundary line between the Choctaws and Chickasaws, and at any place in the Chickasaw or Choctaw country, between Bear Creek and Natchez.

Separate Proposals will also be received as aforesaid, for the supply of all rations which may be required for the use of the United States, from the 1st day of January 1803, until the 31st day of December, in the same year, both days inclusive, within the several states herein after mentioned, viz.

Sixth—At Fort Wilkinson, at Cockspur Island, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the state of Georgia.

Seventh—At Charleston, at Rock Mountain, on the head waters of the Santee, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the states of South and North Carolina.

Eighth—At Norfolk, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the state of Virginia.

Ninth—At Fort M'Henry, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the state of Maryland.

Tenth—At Fort Mifflin, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the states of Pennsylvania, New-Jersey and Delaware.

Eleventh—At Fort Jay, at West Point and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the state of New York, excepting Niagara.

Twelfth—At Fort Trumbull, at Fort Wolcott, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the states of Connecticut, Rhode Island and Vermont.

Thirteenth—At Fort Independence, (Boston harbor) and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the state of Massachusetts, the district of Maine excepted.

Fourteenth—At Portsmouth, at Portland, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of New Hampshire and district of Maine.

A Ration to consist of eighteen ounces of bread or flour, or when neither can be obtained, of one quart of rice, or one and an half pound of sifted or bolted indian meal, one pound and a quarter of beef, or three quarters of a pound of pork, one gill of rum, whisky or brandy, and at the rate of two quarts of salt, four quarts of vinegar, four pounds of soap, and one pound and an half of candles to every hundred rations. The price of the several component parts of the ration as well as substitutes and alternatives, must be specified.

The rations are to be furnished in such quantities, as that there shall at all times during the term of the proposed contracts, be sufficient for the consumption of the troops at Michilimakinac, Detroit and Niagara, for six months in advance; and at each of the other posts on the western waters, for at least three months in advance, of good and wholesome provisions, if the same shall be required. It is also to be permitted to all and every of the commandants of fortified places or posts, to call for at seasons when the same can be transported, or at any time in the case of urgency, such supplies of like provisions in advance, as in the discretion of the commandant shall be deemed proper. It is to be understood that the contractor is to be at the expence and risk of issuing the supplies to the troops; and that all losses sustained by the depredation of an enemy, or by the means of the troops of the United States, shall be paid for by the United States, at the price of the article captured or destroyed, on the depositions of two or more creditable characters, and the certificate of a commissioned officer, ascertaining the circumstances of the loss, and the amount of the articles for which compensation shall be claimed.

The privilege is to be understood to be reserved to the United States of requiring that none of the supplies which may be furnished under any of the proposed contracts, shall be issued until the supplies which have been or may be furnished under contracts now in force, have been consumed, and that a supply in advance may be always required at any of the fixed posts on the sea board or Indian frontiers, not exceeding three months.

HENRY DEARBORN,
Secretary of War.
