

DEMONSTRATION IN FRONT OF THE ROYAL PALACE, ROME, Upon Receipt of the News of an Italian Victory. The King and Queen of Italy, the Royal Children and the Duke of Genoa and Family Are on the Balcony Above the Doorway of the Palace, at the Left of the Center of the Photograph. (Photos by Underwood & Underwood.)

(Photo by Medem.)

Son and Grandsons of the Great Italian Patriot, General Ricciotti Garibaldi and His Sons, Peppino, Ezio, Santi and Menotti, Leaving Military Headquarters Just After Volunteering.

For the First Time Since 1871, Marsevaux, in Alsace, Celebrated the Copus Christi Fete Under French Rule. The Town Has Become French Again. French and Alsatian Flags Are Seen Everywhere. This Procession, a Mile Long, Was Led by French Military and Civil Authorities.

An Innovation in Orthodox Turkey. Veiled Women in Constantinople Collect Money for Needy Families of Soldiers.

AUSTRIAN SOLDIERS PLAYING NINEPINS ON THE ITALIAN FRONT.

RUSSIAN PRISONERS RESTING IN THE SNOW AFTER A DECISIVE BATTLE WITH AUSTRIANS IN THE CARPATHIANS.