30 DOLLARS REWARD,

FOR apprehending and safe keeping, black MOSES, about 5 feet 10 inches high, about 25 years old; has lost an upper fore tooth, has a rupture near his groin; when sharply spoken to shews submission, his voice is soft and low, his gestures is such as has enabled him to deceive those who are acquainted with him. I have had him twice since the 30th of July last; once he broke from the stocks; once from five men on the 26th December last. On the day after he broke Wm. Lee's house, and took therefrom all said Lee's wearing apparel, also a saddle and bridle and a horse from my stable. The horse, saddle and bridle I have recovered, which was taken from him by Mr. Rison who keeps ferry near Dumfries. The principal part of clothing he had with him when he was lodged in Dumfries jail, on 30th December last, consisted of home made cloth, which he took with him on the 1st of January last when he broke jail and cleared himself. I suppose he is lurking about George Town or Alexandria. He called himself a freeman, and passed by the name of John Lucas Roulls. It is likely he will take some other. The above reward and all reasonable charges I will pay to any person who will lodge him in any jail, or deliver him to me in Orange county.

Mr. Joshua B. Bond's celebrated running Horse
FIRST CONSUL,

WILL stand this season, at the subscriber's farm in Prince Georges county, Maryland, about seven miles from Queen Anne, ten from Bladensburg, the same distance from Upper Marlborough, and about sixteen miles from the city of Washington; at Twenty-Five dollars the season, and one dollar to the groom; but Twenty-One dollars will be received in full if sent with the MARES; if the money is not sent with the mares it is requested that notes of hand will be sent at that time, given for Twenty Six dollars, payable at the expiration of the season, which will commence immediately and end the 1st of August. Good pasture will be furnished gratis, as soon as the grass is good, and in the mean time, hay and corn furnished at the common price, for the mares according to orders. The utmost care will be taken of the mares, but I will not be answerable for accidents or escapes. Consul is of fine figure, beautiful bright bay, with a small blaze in his face, and his hind ancles white; full 15 and 1 2 hands high. It is expected that the stock from Consul and well bred mares, will not be surpassed by the stock from any horse (scarcely) in America, for the turf, carriage, or saddle; or even from Consul and good looking mares, which have none of the running blood; their colts cannot be other than elegant in a carriage or under the saddle.

Such mares as have little, or not any of what is supposed to be running blood in them, may be put to Consul at half price, the money sent with the mares.

It should be preferred by gentlemen living beyond Bladensburgh and Upper Marlborough, who wish to breed from Consul, by giving notice to the subscriber, he can be sent one day in each week to each place, from the first day of April, while there will be any mares to send to him from either of those directions; say Bladensburg on Tuesday, and Upper Marlborough on Saturday.

ISAAC DUCKETT.

March 12, 1808.

PEDIGREE OF FIRST CONSUL.

HE was foaled in Philadelphia county, June 1798, got by the noted running horse Flag of Truce, his dam by the imported horse Slender, his grandam from the imported mare Dianna, Dianna was got by Old Eclipse, Slender was got by King Herod, who produced more runners than any other horse in England, as may be seen by the Racing Calender, therefore it may in truth be said on the dam side of First Consul, the two great grand sires were the best horses England ever produced. Flag of Truce was bred by colonel Good of Virginia and was esteemed the best turf horse in his day and was the sire to colonel Taylor's famous running horse Leviathen. First Consul has won either 20 or 22 purses from 100l. and 100g. and never started against a horse he did not outrun until the fall he was eight years old—the spring following he won three purses and distanced the field the first day at New Market on Long Island.

BALTIMORE FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.

Office, No. 6, South Street.

PROPOSALS FOR INSURING Houses, Buildings, Stores, Ships in harbor, Goods, Wares and Merchandize from loss or damage by Fire.

THE Legislature of the State of Maryland having incorporated the Baltimore Fire Insurance Company, with a capital of five hundred thousand Dollars, for the purpose of insuring buildings, and every kind of personal property, from loss or damage by Fire, as well as insurance on lives—The number of shares authorized by law being all subscribed with avidity, the Directors feel a particular satisfaction in offering to their fellow citizens throughout the United States, the means of security against that kind of loss which frequently in an unexpected moment, involves in destruction the earnings of a life of industry and frugality, and reduces the independent and affluent together with their families, to poverty and distress. To provide an additional guard against calamities of this nature, has been the primary motive of the institution; and the directors engage to conduct its concerns with a fairness, candor and liberality which will justly entitle it to the confidence and patronage of the public.

 No insured person will be liable to make good the losses of others, but in case of fire, the sufferer will be fully indemnified.—The company also make good losses on property burnt by lightning.

CONDITIONS OF INSURANCE.

I. All applications for insurance must be made at the office of the company in writing.

II. In all applications for insurance of property, the applicant must furnish an accurate and just description of the same—viz. Of what materials each building is constructed; whether occupied as private dwellings, or how otherwise; where situated; the name of the present occupiers; how situated with respect to other buildings. And in the insurance of goods, wares and merchandize, the place where the same are deposited, is to be described; also, a general description of such goods, and whether any manufactory is carried on in the premises, all which is to be certified and attested in such manner as the nature of the case may admit. And if any person or persons shall insure his or their buildings or goods, and shall cause them to be described in the policy otherwise than they really are, so as the same be charged at a lower premium than would otherwise be demanded; or if such description be false or fraudulent, such insurance will be void and of none effect.

III. Goods held in trust, or on commission, are to be declared as such; otherwise the policy will not extend to cover such property.

IV. Every policy of assurance, made by this company, shall be sealed with its seal, signed by the president and attested by the secretary; and the person for whose interest the insurance is made, must be declared and named therein; nor can any policy or interest therein be assigned but by consent of the company, expressed by endorsement made thereon.

V. No insurance will be considered as made or binding until the premium is paid.

VI. Jewels, plate, medals, or other curiosities, paintings and sculptures, are not included in any insurance, unless such articles are specified in the policy.

VII. All persons insured by this company, sustaining any loss or damage by fire, are forthwith to give notice to the company, and as soon after as possible, to deliver in as particular an account of their losses or damage, signed with their own hands, as the nature of the case will admit of, and make proof of the same by their oath or affirmation, and by their books of accounts, and other proper vouchers, as shall be reasonably required: and shall make oath whether any and what other insurance is made on the same property; and shall procure a certificate, under the hand of a magistrate, or notary public, (most contiguous to the spot where the fire happened, and not concerned in such loss) that they are acquainted with the character and circumstances of the person or persons insured; and do know or verily believe, that he, she, or they, really, and by misfortune, and without fraud or evil practice, have sustained by such fire, loss and damage to the amount therein mentioned; and, until such affidavits and certificates are produced, the loss shall not be payable. Also, if there appears any fraud, or false swearing, the claimant shall forfeit his claim to restitution or payment, by virtue of his policy.

VIII. In case any difference shall arise, touching any loss or damage, it may be submitted to the judgment of arbitrators, indifferently chosen, whose award in writing shall be binding on the parties. And when any loss or damage shall happen, the company shall pay for the same in sixty days after the loss shall have been ascertained and proved, without allowance of discount, fees, or any deduction whatever.

IX. Insurance may be made for seven years, by paying the premium for six years; and for a less number than seven, a reasonable discount will be allowed.
