FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Montgomery county, Maryland, near the Great falls of Potomac, on the 16th ult. a Negro Man, named JACK; he is about 5 feet 5 inches high, well made in proportion, and is a very artful fellow, about 40 years of age, an African by birth, speaks bad English, stammers very much; he has a remarkable large mouth and teeth, very thick lips, a dull countenance when spoken to, & speaks quick; he has lost both his little toes. It is needless to describe his cloathing, as he took away with him several suits, and no doubt will change his dress, and it is highly probable he may have a pass.

Whoever will take up said fellow, and secure him in any jail, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward, if taken 120 miles from home, and in proportion if nearer.

UNION CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

MANY well informed Inhabitants of Georgetown & Washington, as well as several respectable persons residing in their vicinity, having frequently expressed their wishes to have access to a well chosen Circulating Library, and their regret that no institution of the kind is here to be found on a scale sufficiently ample to afford copious information on the various subjects of general Literature: the subscriber has resolved to establish one on a new and extensive plan.

It is intended, in the first instance, to furnish it with a numerous selection of those works to which time has affixed the seal of sterling worth, and to replenish it with every book published in the United States, as soon as issued from the press, whether historical, political, scientifical, or of that description which is designated by the more general term, amusing, including all the new plays; together with a regular series of the British Reviews, and every French and English publication of merit.

The advantages of such an establishment are obvious; to Ladies and Gentlemen of literary taste it holds out a pleasing and never ending source of rational amusement; to those in search of knowledge, a cheap and easy attainment of their wishes; and to persons desirous of forming a private library, a valuable opportunity of selecting such books only as they may approve, which cannot be determined otherwise than by a previous perusal—an advantage, which, without such an institution, can be obtained only by the expence of a purchase frequently ending in disappointment.

Should this plan meet with that encouragement which is necessary to justify the undertaking, it shall go into operation on the following CONDITIONS.

First—As soon as one hundred subscribers, at Five Dollars each, are obtained, the Union Circulating Library shall be opened with $1000 worth of books, and in like proportion for any greater number of subscribers.

Second—The terms of subscription will be—for one year, Five Dollars—six months, Three Dollars—three months, Two Dollars, and one month, One Dollar.

Third—All subscriptions must be invariably paid in advance.

Fourth—Each subscriber to be entitled to one book at a time, or two volumes, if of the same set, which may be changed once a day and not oftener; but subscribers residing more than six miles from Georgetown will be allowed two books at a time.

Fifth—To accommodate subscribers as early as possible, two copies at least of such new books as possess a high degree of interest shall be placed in the Library.

Sixth—The prices will be marked in each book belonging to the Library, and any subscriber who may lose or damage any of them will be required to pay the amount or replace the same—if part of a set, the remaining volumes to be delivered to the subscriber who will be charged with the whole.

Seventh—The Library shall be open every day, from nine o'clock in the morning till sun-set.

For the accommodation of strangers, books will be loaned at the following rates, viz.—Six Cents for books of the value of one dollars and fifty cents—Twelve and a half Cents for those of two dollars fifty cents, and in like proportion for books of higher value.

A deposit equal to the marked price of each book will be required, to be returned on safe delivery of the book into the Library, deducting the premium for reading.

JOSEPH MILLIGAN.

Georgetown, November 14, 1808.

N. B. As soon as the Library shall be established, a proposal will be made to extend the plan by the addition of a Reading Room, which, however, will be distinct from the Library, and furnished with New Books, and Periodical Publications, as well as with files of at least six Newspapers from different parts of the Union, and a complete Atlas.

☞ Subscriptions received by J. Milligan Georgetown, and R. C. Weightman, Washington city.
