

(Photo by Burke & Atwell.)

"BUFFALO BILL," THE LATE
COL. WILLIAM F. CODY.
On His Famous White Charger, Acknowledging the Greetings of Thousands of Friends
Surrounding the Arena of His "Wild West Show."

MISS FLORENCE GUS-TAVE AND "JACK"
HOLLAND.
In a Scene From the "Arabian Nights" Costume Ball
Given a Week Ago at Coronado Beach, California.
(Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)

WILLIAM
G. SHARP,
American Ambassador
to France, Through Whom the Notes of the Entente Allies Have Been Transmitted to the United States and the Central Powers.
From a New Photograph Taken in the Library of Ambassador Sharp's Residence in Paris Especially For The New York Times.
(Photos © American Press Ass'n. From Medem.)

MISS HELEN MCKISSICK,
Daughter of Lewis McKissick of New York, on Her Favorite Mount, Dandelion II., at Miami, Florida, Where She Is Known as Polo Player and Daring Horsewoman.

ENRICO
CARUSO.
From a Life
Size Marble Bust
of the Tenor Just Completed by C. S. Pietro, a Smaller Bronze Bust of Mr. Caruso Having Been Destroyed by Fire in the Sculptor's Studio Last April.

MISS MARGARET SHARP,
Daughter of United States Ambassador
Sharp, on the Stairway of the Ambassador's Residence in Paris.

MRS. PAUL G. TOMLINSON,
FORMERLY MISS GABRIELLA PROUT,
DAUGHTER OF COL. AND MRS. HENRY
G. PROUT.
(Photo by Walter Scott Shinn.)