

TWO WHOLE PRUSSIAN COMPANIES PERISHED

Sunday, Jan. 21, 1917

MRS. MAX STOEHR,
Who Has Been Chosen to Open the Annual German Charity Ball with Otto von Schrenk, Chairman, at the Hotel Astor This Week.

Claude Grahame
White and His Bride, Formerly
Ethel Levey,
the Actress,
Leaving
Hendon,
London,
in an Aeroplane for Their Honeymoon.
(Photo © by Central News
Service.)

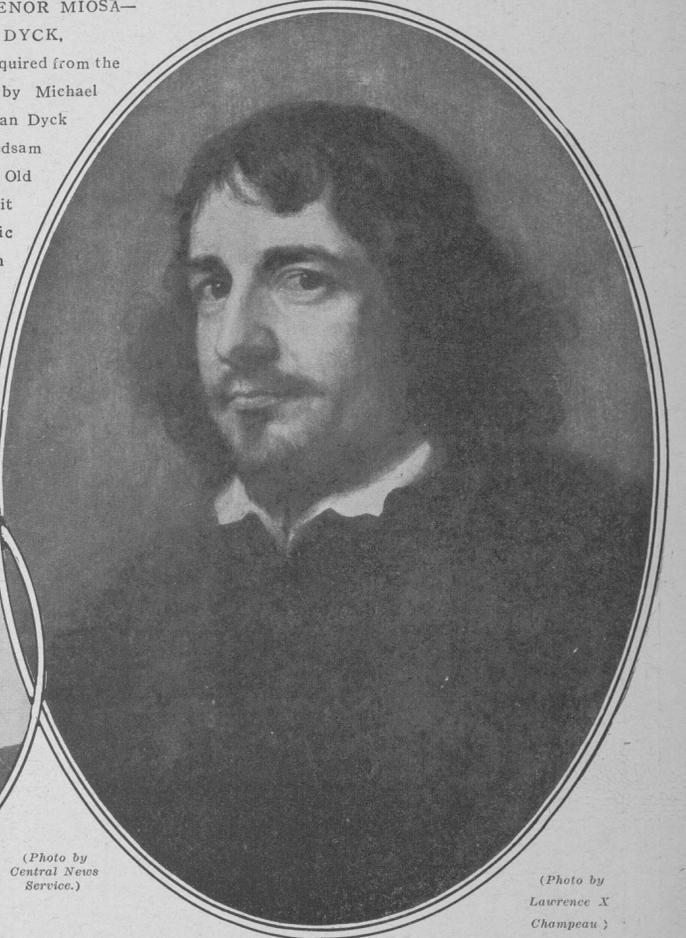

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE
B. POST, JR., Formerly Miss Irene Langhorne Gibson, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, at Palm Beach.

(Photo by
Central News Service.)

(Photo by Lawrence X
Champeau)

PORTRAIT OF SENOR MIOSA—
BY VAN DYCK,
Which Has Just Been Acquired from the Kleinberger Galleries by Michael Friedsam. The First Van Dyck
Purchased by Mr. Friedsam for His Collection of Old Masters, This Portrait
Has the Added Historic Interest of Having Been Brought to America by Joseph Bonaparte, Who Had It with Him at Bordentown, N. J.

MME
SIMONE
PUGET, Who Has Just Arrived in This Country, After a Thrilling Experience on the Battlefield, Where She Found Her Husband, the French Poet, Lying Mortally Wounded, His Death Occurring a Few Days Later in a Field Hospital.

(Photo © by Otis
Wood, by Jean de Strelcekl.)

LITTLE GIRLS OF MISS STELLA MORCADAL'S CLASS GIVING A CLASSICAL DANCE IN MIDWINTER ON THE SWARD IN THE CITY PARK, NEW ORLEANS

(Photo © by International Film Service.)