STATE OF MARYLAND—IN CHANCERY,

July 2nd, 1808.

Alexander Clagett, and Richard Henderson, vs.

Margery Beall and others.

THE object of the bill is to obtain the sale of two tracts of Land called "Azadia," and "Gleaning," for the payment of a debt due from Isaac Beall deceased, to Samuel Beall deceased, or so much thereof as will be sufficient for the payment of that debt; the bill states that Isaac Beall was indebted to David Ross, Richard Henderson, and Samuel Beall, to secure the payment of which debt, the said Isaac Beall on the ninth day of January seventeen hundred and seventy five, executed a bond to them for the conveyance of the aforesaid land, with an endorsement on the bond that it was intended merely to secure the debt, That the said Isaac Beall died without paying the debt, and by his Will devised the said land to his children, Anne, Alexander, and Margery Beall in tail as tenants in common after the death of Margery his wife; that Ann and Alexander have since died intestate, under age, and without issue; that Margery married a certain Charles Vance, and that the defendants all reside in the state of Virginia.

The bill further states, that said Samuel Beall has also died intestate and that the complainant Alexander Clagett, administered on his estate, that the debt due as aforesaid was at the instance of Isaac Beall and his heirs paid by your complainant Clagett, out of the estate of said Samuel Beall. It is thereupon on the motion of the complainants, ordered that they cause a copy of this order to be inserted at least once in each of three successive weeks in the National Intelligencer, before the 6th day of August next, to the end that the said Margery Beall may have notice of the complainants application to this court, and of the subject and object of this bill, and may be warned to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the 6th day of December next, to shew why a decree should not pass as prayed.

GENERAL ORDERS.

THE General takes command of the army, and the superintendency of the recruiting service; all persons interested are to regulate their conduct accordingly.

The commanding officers of posts, camps, or cantonments, are until further orders to address their monthly returns, as well of inspection as of the troops under their command, to major Abimail Y. Nicoll, adjutant and inspector at this city; and on the receipt of this order, they are with the least possible delay to make up and transmit, to the same address, the following returns, for the accuracy of which they will be held strictly accountable, viz.

1st. A critical return of the troops to distinguish between those who are fit for the hardy services of the field, those who are competent to garrison duty, and those who are fit subjects for discharge.

2nd. A return to shew the monthly expiration of the periods of service for which the troops were engaged.

3d. Exact inspection returns by companies, to shew the state and condition of the clothing, arms, and accoutrements in use and in store.

4th. A return of arms, accoutrements, ammunition, military stores, and the tools and implements of the laboratory in magazine to include cannon and mortar pieces, mounted and dismounted, and to distinguish the articles fit for service, from those which are not.

5th. A return to include every species of tools, implements, and stores appurtenant to the quarter master's department, with a discrimination of to sound from the damaged.

The recruiting officers and the superintendants of districts, will receive particular instructions for their government; and the general flatters himself every exertion will be made, to complete the levy of the new corps as speedily as possible.

In resuming the command, the general thinks proper to call the attention of the officers of the army to the standing orders of the 22d May 1797, which constitute the rule of conduct, except when contravened by superior authority or subsequent arrangements.

The gentlemen in commission will be pleased to observe, that all official communications are to be endorsed "public service" and are to have the name and rank of the officer subjoined.

JA: WILKINSON.

By the general's command,

CLEMENT C. BIDDLE,

Captain Light Dragoons and Aid-de-Camp.
