

THE FRENCH MISSION, HEADED BY VICE PREMIER VIVIANI AND MARSHAL JOFFRE ARRIVING AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO, CHICAGO.
M. Viviani Can Be Seen in the Foreground, Arm in Arm with Harry Pratt Judson, President of the University, and Marshal Joffre Just Behind Them.

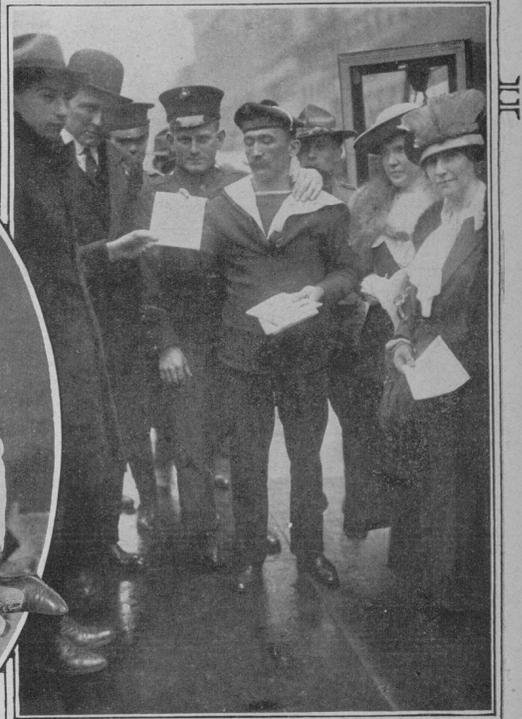

(Photo by International Film Service.)

RECRUITS OF THE CITY COLLEGE MILITARY ORGANIZATION GOING THROUGH THEIR "SETTING UP" DRILL IN FRONT OF THE COLLEGE STADIUM.
(Times Photo Service.)

BETH LYDY,
Actress, in the Patriotic Benefit Tableaux Given by the National School Children's Garden League.
(Photo © International Film Service.)

SAILOR FROM THE FRENCH BATTLE CRUISER ADMIRAL AUBE DISTRIBUTING U. S. MARINE RECRUITING PAMPHLETS IN THE STREETS OF NEW YORK.
(Times Photo Service.)

THE STATUE OF GENERAL ALEXANDER STEWART WEBB UNVEILED AT THE CITY COLLEGE, OF WHICH HE WAS PRESIDENT FROM 1869 TO 1902.
The Veil Was Drawn by Mrs. Bayard C. Hoppin, a Granddaughter of General Webb.
(Times Photo Service.)

CAPTAIN E. D. POWERS, U. S. A., AND CAPTAIN C. F. THOMPSON, COMMANDANT AT CORNELL, INSPECTING THE CORNELL CADET CORPS OF 1,300 MEN DRAWN UP IN THE UNIVERSITY QUADRANGLE.
(Photo by White.)