

KING
GEORGE V.
Speaking With a Wounded British Soldier
Who, With Many Others Like Himself,
Had Been Invited to the Courtyard of Buckingham
Palace to Witness the Bestowal
By the King of the Victoria
Cross and Other Medals on British Soldiers.
(Press Illustrating Service, Inc.)

FIELD MARSHAL VON MACKENSEN,
WHO IS LEADING THE AUSTRO-GERMAN FORCES ON THE ITALIAN FRONT.
From a Recent Photograph Just Received in This Country From London.
(© Central News Service.)

Y. M. C. A. HUT ON THE FRENCH FRONT
PARTLY CONCEALED FROM ENEMY
AIRMEN BY A CAMOUFLAGE OF BOUGHS.
To Provide Huts of This Character in All the War Zones and to Carry Forward Its War
Relief Work in This Country and Abroad,
the Y. M. C. A. Begins Today a Short Campaign for $35,000,000.

PROFESSOR
FREDERICK
STARR,
Head of the Department of Anthropology
of the University of Chicago,
Touring Japan
in Pilgrim
Costume in Continuation of His Study of the
Ainu, the Caucasian
Aborigines of Japan.
Professor Starr is
Said to be the First
White Man Who Has Toured Japan in the National Pilgrim's
Dress. With Him Are ← Two Native Guides.

L'ARGENTINA,
PREMIERE SPANISH DANSEUSE,
IN "THE LAND OF JOY."

THE SPANISH CHORUS OF "THE LAND OF JOY,"
AT THE PARK THEATRE.
(White Studio.)

ORCHESTRA COMPOSED
OF GERMAN WAR PRISONERS AT
BEREZOVKA, SIBERIA, WITH INSTRUMENTS MADE BY THEMSELVES IN THE PRISONERS' WORKSHOPS ESTABLISHED THERE BY THE Y. M. C. A.

DEMOCRAT,
PRESIDENT WILSON'S SADDLE HORSE, FOR WHICH HE IS SAID TO HAVE ALMOST DESERTED HIS MOTOR CAR.
(Press Illustrating Service.)

SENORA
MARIA
MARCO, PRIMA DONNA IN "THE LAND OF JOY," AT THE PARK THEATRE.
(White Studio.)