

GROUP OF FARMERETTES WHO HAVE TAKEN THE PLACES OF THE MEN IN THE TOWN OF VINING, COBB COUNTY, GA., PRACTICALLY ALL OF THE ABLE-BODIED MALES OF THE COMMUNITY HAVING VOLUNTEERED OR BEEN CALLED TO THE SERVICE THROUGH THE SELECTIVE DRAFT LAW.

(Kadel & Herbert.)

A TIRED "PLOW-BOY"
Of the Little Town of Vining, Ga., Where the Wives and Daughters of the Men Who Have Answered the Call to the Colors Are Doing Practically All of the Farm Work.

(Kadel & Herbert.)

BRITISH GUNNERS MANNING A BRITISH GUN IN THE AID OF THE GREAT ITALIAN "PUSH" TOWARD TRIESTE.

(Central News.)

HOPE HARDING DAVIS,
Daughter of Mrs. Bessie McCoy Davis and the Late Richard Harding Davis.

(Walter Scott Shinn.)

GROUP OF SOLDIERS AND THEIR GIRL FRIENDS DANCING AT CAMP MILLS, MINEOLA, L. I., TO THE MUSIC OF A PHONOGRAPH, A GIFT TO ONE OF THE SOLDIERS.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

COLONEL CHARLES DE LANO HINE, COMMANDER OF THE OLD "FIGHTING SIXTY-NINTH," RECEIVING VISITORS AT CAMP MILLS, MINEOLA.

Left to Right, Are: Colonel Hine, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Sheridan, and Mrs. Hine.

(Times Photo Service.)

SOLDIER OF THE OLD "FIGHTING SIXTY-NINTH," NOW THE 185TH REGIMENT OF THE NEW NATIONAL GUARD ARMY, GREETING HIS FAMILY AT CAMP MILLS, MINEOLA, L. I. The Little Girl is Holding a Copy of the Picture Section of The New York Times Which She Had Brought Her Father to Show Him His Picture As He Was Marching Away from New York.

(Times Photo Service.)

A SERGEANT OF THE SIXTY-NINTH AT CAMP MILLS, WITH A HAMMER AS BATON, LEADING HIS COMPANY'S GLEE CLUB AT A REHEARSAL OF THE SONG, "OH BOYS, OH BOYS, WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?"

(Times Photo Service.)