THE THIRD ATTEMPT TO RAISE INTO POSITION THE 5,000-TON CENTRAL SPAN IN THE WORLD'S LARGEST CANTILEVER BRIDGE, COSTING $20,000,000, OVER THE ST. LAWRENCE RIVER AT QUEBEC.
Photograph Shows the Position of the Span on Last Tuesday Morning When the Work Had Been About Half Completed. The First Two Attempts Resulted in a Collapse of the Spans and the Loss of Approximately Two Dozen Lives. (Chesterfield & McLaren.)

GROUP OF PASSENGERS IN THE CAR OF THE CAPRONI BIPLANE JUST BEFORE IT LEFT THE LANGLEY AVIATION FIELD FOR ITS FIRST FLIGHT IN THIS COUNTRY.
In the Group, First Row, Left to Right, Are: Martin Vogel, Assistant United States Treasurer; Mrs. Martin Vogel, and Capt. Resnati of the Royal Italian Flying Corps, the Pilot. Behind: Bion Arnold, U. S. Naval Advisory Board; Mr. Judkins, U. S. Industries Board, and Capt. Wadsworth, U. S. Aviation Corps.

A HUGE CAPRONI BIPLANE, WITH A CARRYING CAPACITY OF TEN PASSENGERS, LEAVING THE LANGLEY AVIATION FIELD, NEWPORT NEWS, VA., FOR FORT MONROE ON THE FIRST FLIGHT OF A MACHINE OF THIS SIZE AND MAKE IN AMERICA.

JANE HOUSTON,
in "The Old Country," to be Produced Early in October. Miss Houston Is Holding "Rufty," Daughter of Oliver Herford's "Hafiz."
(Davis & Sanford.)

MISS GRACE VANDERBILT,
Daughter of Col. Cornelius Vanderbilt of the Twenty-second Regiment of Engineers, Leaving "Harbor Hill," the Mackay Home at Roslyn, L. I., After a Session of the Hospital Aid Class. Her Brother, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., Recently Volunteered as a Private in the New York National Guard, and Is Stationed at Camp Wadsworth, Spartanburg, S.C.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

GIRL OPERATING A BOLT THREADING MACHINE IN THE BALTIMORE & OHIO RAILWAY SHOPS, BALTIMORE, RELEASING A MAN FOR THE FRONT.
(Paul Thompson.)

MEN OF NEW YORK CITY'S SECOND QUOTA FOR THE NEW NATIONAL ARMY OFF FOR CAMP UPTON, YAPHANK, LONG ISLAND, SAYING GOOD-BYE TO THEIR FRIENDS IN THE LONG ISLAND CITY RAILWAY STATION.
(Times Photo Service.)

MISS NATALIE CAMP,
Of New York, in Her Russian Military Uniform, in Which She Will Drive an American Ambulance Over Russian Battlefields.
(© International Film Service.)

DAUGHTERS OF THE RICH, UNDER THE LEADERSHIP OF MISSES KATHERINE AND ELLIN MACKAY, ORGANIZE A SCIENTIFIC HOSPITAL AID CLASS AT "HARBOR HILL," THE HOME OF CLARENCE H. MACKAY, AT ROSLYN, L. I.
In the Group, Left to Right, Are: Miss Della Dennison of the Roosevelt Hospital, Who Is in Charge of the Class; Misses Katharine Urquhart, Elizabeth A. Kearny, Grace Vanderbilt, Katherine Mackay, Ellin Mackay, May Tailer, Muriel Vanderbilt, and Miss Mary Claire Finerty, Graduate Nurse of St. Vincent's Hospital. (© Underwood & Underwood.)