Bringing in the Christmas Tree for the Holiday Merrymaking

Next Summer—and Ever After! An Ornament and a Sweet Memory

Here's the Newest Idea for Christmas!

TWO, in fact,—and both approved not only by common sense but by the example of leaders of society like Mrs. Robert Bacon, Irving Brokaw, and others. (1) Instead of buying a dead Xmas tree to be thrown on the ash-heap "the morning after," buy a live Xmas tree and after the gifts are distributed have a "planting bee" and let the children plant the tree on the lawn, naming it after Grandma or some other member of the family,—perhaps the absent one "over there" or about to go. Repeating this each Xmas will give you a notable collection of trees rich in sentimental associations. Order a Douglas Spruce, 5 ft. high, $4.00; or a Japanese Fir (fragrant balsom odor), 5 ft., $8; 6 ft., $15; 8 to 10 ft., $20. Sent by express anywhere—but order Now.

(2) Give something really distinctive and lasting for Xmas. Give your married daughter a group of evergreens (always cosy, always smiling) for a corner of her lawn ("Daddy's Cove"). Similar gifts for Wife, Mother, Sister, etc. Why not a Christmas gift to Mother of a Cove of Evergreens—to keep your memory "ever green," lend added beauty and color and warmth to the home landscape in winter, and a cool retreat and resting-place in summer. How much it will mean both in comfort and in grateful memories! A group of 32 choice Evergreens, carefully selected by us for this purpose (uncommon specimens, too) costs only $36,—and we take charge of all the details, the proper arrangement, etc., and even guarantee that they will all grow beautifully. Or, instead of a Cove of Evergreens, give a group of Fruit Trees and Berry Bushes (what a sweet reminder of the giver—every year—forever!) A paltry $10 (for 11 trees and 120 plants) or even $6 (for 13 trees) pays for the Fruit Garden—and we assume all the trouble. Or a Complete Rosebed—how would you feel if you received a gift of a Garden of Roses?—not cut flowers to wither and die, but a collection of Rose Plants to bless the recipient every year with their beauty and fragrance. $5 or $10 or more, as you wish, will pay for such a gift. Among other gifts are: Brilliant Shrub Group, 20 plants, $5. Blue Garden, 100 plants, $10. "A Wall of Green" (evergreen hedge—pine, fir, spruce) at 65c. per running foot.

Send us list of names, state amount and wishes for each gift—we will send Xmas Certificates naming the gifts, "Cove of Evergreens," "Fruit Garden," etc., (no prices), to be planted after their own wishes in the spring (we look after everything—guarantee perfect growth—relieve you of all bother). The joy and sweetness of these unique gifts will last forever.

Make up your list and write us as quickly as possible—and order your own Xmas tree at once (wire collect if necessary).
