NEW YORK TRIBUNE
PART SEVEN

Tribune Graphic

SUNDAY, APRIL 14
1918

Allies all. British soldiers and Italian peasants in a small town just back of the Italian front.

British Official, Underwood & Underwood.

A field in Flanders that has been shelled and fought over. The tanks in the background are not waiting to go into action. Service has rendered them useless except as shelters and points of observation.

British Official, Underwood & Underwood.