

Attended by French generals and admirals, President Poincare of France, in the presence of General Harts, of the United States Army, places the first stone for the monument to be erected in commemoration of the American intervention at St. Mihiel. Press Illustrating.

The Roosevelt Memorial Flag, with its forty-eight stars in place, reaches Sagamore Hill after its journey across the state and is laid on the grave of Theodore Roosevelt in the little cemetery at Oyster Bay. Samuel Abbott, who originated the idea of the flag, is seen performing the final ceremony on Roosevelt Memorial Day. Press Illustrating.

Lieut. Alexander Pearson jr., who made the best record for actual flying time in the recent transcontinental air race—48 hours, 37 minutes and 16 seconds for the round trip. Press Illustrating.

At a recent important exhibition of American art in the Luxembourg Museum, in Paris, a striking statue of President Wilson stands before a wondrous tapestry, 'twixt busts of those two immortals, Benjamin Franklin and George Washington. President Poincare of France officially opened this exhibition. Press Illustrating.

The first photo of Mrs. Wilson since the President's illness, arriving at St. Paul's, Washington, to attend requiem mass for the late Count Macchi de Celere, Italian Ambassador to the U. S. International.

New York's first woman city magistrate, Mrs. Jean H. Norris, appointed last week by Mayor Hylan. She will preside in the Women's Court and the Court of Domestic Relations. Press Illustrating.

Left—These people are taking part in the unusual services prescribed by the Holy Rollers, a religious sect of non-meat eaters who believe that the body as well as the soul must be saved. Ledger Photo.

Right—Marine "Devil Dogs" at Mare Island, California, provide diverting entertainment when they turn on the hose and indulge in a playful water fight. Underwood.

