FROM GOVERNOR DINWIDDIE.

WILLIAMSBURG June 18th: 1756

SIR

I desire You to send me a List of the Volunteers You are to appoint to the Vacancies in Your Regiment—& the Number of Draughts from the Militia, which I am sorry to think will be much fewer than I expected.

As the Regimt. will be pretty much divided in Forts &c I thot. it proper & necessary to appoint Mr. Boyd the Pay-Mr., Muster Master, by which on paying the Men he will be able to make an exact return of each Company to You, & in course will be a Check to the Officers to keep their Companies as compleat as possible.

I wish You Health & Success in Your Operations & I am Sir Your most hble Servt. ROBT.
DINWIDDIE
