FROM COLONEL SIR JOHN ST. CLAIR.

FREDERICK TOWN Sunday forenoon May 14th. 1758.

DEAR SIR,—Yesterday afternoon the Post gave me your Letter of the 11th. which I transmitted to Brigdr. Forbes. I expect Govr. Sharpe at this place every moment, and if I was at Winchester I cou'd do but little untill he & Mr. Blair arrived. I shall be with you at furthest on teusday morning which makes me not enter upon particulars as I am to see you so soon. I am with great Sincerity Dear Sir, Your most obedient and most humble servant

JOHN ST. CLAIR.
