CAMP RAYS TOWN July 17 1758

SIR

Capt. Robt. Stewart writes me he show'd you my letter ... wherein I wish'd to be in the Light horse—and tho he is Engag'd if tis left to his Choice—and you will not interfere in it —

Give me leave to Accept the Friendship Colonel Bouquet has for me—who told me he wou'd ask it for me of the General—I wait your permission (if it is not promis'd tho indeed I'm afraid it is, Col Bouquet will Endeavor to get it for me)

therefore as he is kind enough to Interest himself so much in my behalf ... permit me Receive this favor ... which will give me great pleasure and the more as I shall still Continue under your Command

I am Sir your very Obedt. Humble Servt. EDW HUBBARD
