ALEXANDRIA June 28. 1772.

SIR,

I rec'd yours and Col Washington shall have freight for 250 or 80 barrels of flour at 5/ pr barrel. I believe the vessel will sail to Barbadoes, In her way taking the markets, but this is not yet determined. If she does, she still goes to Jamaica where we have considerable effects to bring home.

As to her Despatch here you may depend on it, and I expect to have her down channel & ready this week and hope to have her loaded and to sail the week afterwards.

Yr humble Servt. JOHN CARLYLE.
