

FROM THE PARIS PAPERS.

August 2.

A letter from London of the 21st of July, says, that the English, French and Russian ministers hold frequent conferences which is considered as a favorable omen of the re-establishment of a general peace.

According to letters from Berlin, of the 18th of July, Lord Clarendon, the English minister, did every exertion to obtain from the Russian government the evacuation of Hanoi. It is thought, that if new obstacles should not arise, the evacuation would take place about the 7th of August, on which day the contracts for the maintenance of the troops would expire. These letters also state, that Prussia had not then succeeded to the convention concluded at Petersburg the 17th of June.

The diplomatic visits for search and seizure of English merchandises are extended from Brussels to Antwerp, and most of the other cities of the United Department. New precautions are taken to prevent the introduction of these merchandises, which are imported into Upper Germany in great quantities.

A letter from Frankfurt of the 29th June, containing further particulars of the persons arrested at Barenth, state, that the one called Danard, who is to strictly guarded, is, in secret, Colonel, formerly mayor of London, who in the revolution emigrated to Russia, to follow the ex-constable and his wife, having afterwards procured his escape from the list of emigrants, was made by a then powerful party a member of the council of Five Hundred in the month of 1795, where he was at the head of a very intriguing party. Prefixed by the law of the 19th Fructidor, he went to Germany, where he has been constantly forming secret societies against the republic. It was to free him that Pichegruy came to Barenth.

MINISTER OF WAR.

Dares, Inspector of Reviews, to the Minister of War.

Legation, July 21.

I let out, citizen minister, from Alexandria of the 21st March. I was taken by the English frigate le Pique, of Alexandria.

I was brought to Aboukie, where I arrived the 8th June. At that period Egypt was in the following situation:

General Menou was at Alexandria, master of the Lake Maryout. He was engaged upon the heights, outside the limits of Alexandria. The English occupied the peninsula of Aboukir with a part of their army, not having gained a decisive battle there. Their bodies were watching each other without fighting. The crews of the ships of war which are in the port of Alexandria formed the garrison of the city and of the forts. The 9th of June, the fleet of the Heloponnia, which Admiral Canthacupe had dispatched, entered Alexandria. It was laden with military stores, and carried four troops. It had left Admiral Canthacupe moored 23 leagues from Alexandria. General Belliard commanded at Cairo, having under him generals Le-granges, Rebine, Danzelat, Bron, &c. His corps the army a great deal stronger than that of Alexandria. The chief of brigade, Dupas, commanded in the island of Gizeh, and the general of brigade, Almesry, at Gizeh. The English army under the command of general Hutchinson, was at Terrance. The captain Pacha, with the flotilla, was under the Nile of Terrance, reporting the English army. The Grand Vizier was at Bilbey; he was advancing upon Cairo—he had been completely beaten by general Belliard, and driven back as far as the Delta. General Belliard has been slightly wounded in that engagement. The English themselves estimate their loss in the engagements of the 8th, 13th, and 21st of March, at 5000 killed. They are very much affected with complaint in the ranks of general Belliard, that of the English force which is at Terrance, the English army may find itself in a difficult position.

The chief of brigade, Cavalier, who equips a company of 600 camels, and 500 infantry, cavalry and artillery, has had the misfortune to be surrounded and made prisoner by the English army, between Alk and Terrance. The garrisons of Damietta and Barak, amounting together to have been five and six hundred men, have all been made prisoners.—Health and respect.

Cairo, July 29.—All communication with England is absolutely cut off, except for M. Otto and government, whose packets are the only ones that go and come freely. Even private letters are not received at this moment. All the passengers who attempted to embark within the federal days past for Dover, have been sent back without being permitted to go on board.

A vessel arrived at Leghorn from Tripoli, in 13 days, states, that the French troops of Cairo have attacked the Grand Vizier, and completely defeated and put him to flight after a very brisk action. Letters from Smyrna of the 23d June say, that the Anglo Turks had not yet approached Cairo, and that the French had gained some advantages over their enemies. Letters from Naples, of the 7th July state as follows:—

"We expected with impatience the confirmation of the news from Egypt. They write from several places that the English, in consequence of the inundations of the Nile, and a battle in which they took 6000 men taken prisoners, have re-embarked with the remains of their army. It is said that some Turkish and Greek vessels at Taranto, have brought the same news."

MADRID, July 7.

The king has written with his own hand, the following letter to the prince of Portugal:—

"I have received with great satisfaction, the colors taken from Portugal, and which you have presented to me, as well as the report which you sent me. I see in these reports that the profits of your love and of your loyalty to me perform, and that you have fulfilled my intentions in every respect, as you have always done; receive the public acknowledgment of my satisfaction. I have directed my military secretary, to return you the two parts of your colors which you have presented to me, in order that you may preserve them in your family, and add them to your arms. I wish to see him always remember me to give you fresh proofs of my friendship, and of my attachment.

(Signed) CHARLES. Badajoz, July 1, 1801.

MADRID, July 10.

His Catholic majesty has addressed to the Privy Council, and other councils, the following royal decree:—

"As after a campaign that glorifies my arms, and which has attained the object which I proposed to myself in declaring war against Portugal, against the malice of my heart, I have the consolation to see peace established with that power, and to ratify the treaty, in which the good of my beloved people is so much interested. I address it consequence to the council, in order that they may enjoin the publication of it in the cities, towns, and villages, and that they may circulate, conformably with my orders, copies of the said treaty, for the purpose of its being made known and observed in all its contents."

(Gazette de Madrid.)

THEIR CATOLIC MAJESTIES ARRIVED THE 8th of July month at Talavera la Royale, three leagues from this city; they found the British army of 15000 men, on the night of the road which they were to pass.

The king mounted his horse to review them; the queen followed in her carriage; their majesties were received amidst acclamations of joy, and the report of numerous discharges of artillery.

The next day, at five in the afternoon, their majesties proceeded to the camp of Santa-Bugaya. The king was on horseback, and the queen having expressed a desire not to remain in her carriage, a triumphal car, elegantly adorned, was brought from the ranks, in which the wondrous soldiers. The monarch and his consort arrived at ten at night. The next day, their majesties went to visit and take possession of their new dominions, that is to say, of the palace of Olivenza and its territory.

LAND FOR SALE.

A VALUABLE TRACT OF LAND, LYING ON Mountain Run, in the county of Loudoun, and within the District of Virginia, containing 1120 acres and well improved, with buildings for stock and general family; orchards, woods, paper mills, water, fine proper meadow land, which is now in full cultivation to 50 or 60,000,000, of any annually 3 or 4 acres of clover, and the first cutting this spring and very luxuriant; and the whole of the cleared land in good farming order and in the possession of a very judicious and industrious man, with great conveniences to be divided into good farms with equal advantages except that of buildings. The buildings on one of them would be of great use, and the great expense to be made comfortable for a small family with two of the best buildings now on it, with a very productive garden, containing a cherry orchard, court house and three valuable merchant mills, two of them within one mile and an half and the other seven miles from the city of Washington, and 10 miles from Frederickburg; distant 50 miles from Alexandria and the Federal City, 30 miles from Frederickburg and Edinborough. As to its localities of situation and agreeableness of neighborhood, I am fully persuaded no one will be disappointed in them. With respect to the land, it is a more equitable divide among my children, and is a fine one of them young, the payments will be made only on paying the interest, usually one third or one fourth of the purchase money will be expected on giving possession, which may take place on or about Christmas next, or perhaps sooner, with the liberty of deferring this fall. All kinds of stock, plantation utensils, corn, fodder, hay, household and other furniture, may be had with the land, and the plantation: Also a parcel of likely NEGROES in families, who are well recommended for their honesty, &c. any person wishing to return from trade, and fit himself in the farming line will seldom find an opportunity of doing it more to his mind than the present one.

One other tract of 200 acres of Land, lying on the river, 4 or 5 miles above Frederickburg, known by the name of Sutherland's Tract of land, the greater part of which is now in wood, containing a quantity of valuable timber, and its vicinity to it throwing a town as well as a small plantation on it now in cultivation may be converted into a small farm to great advantage. It is necessary to say much on its quality or other advantages, preferring any one willing to purchase, will chuse to satisfy themselves by taking a view of them. The payments for such tract of land, may be made on giving possession on or about Christmas next, the other two thirds in two equal annual payments. The price of each tract is 1000 dollars, and the purchase money, either by letter or otherwise; if the price of the latter tract may also be known of Mr. J. G. GARDNER, of Frederickburg.
