

NEW YORK'S PRINCIPAL ART SHOW WAS OPENED YESTERDAY

Seven striking pictures at the National Academy of Design's Annual Winter Exhibition, which will last for a fortnight at 215 West 57th Street.

A GIRL AND A MIRROR—
W. Sergeant Kendall.
(Copyright, 1913, by W. S. Kendall.)

GRANDMOTHER'S GOWN—Edward Dufuer.

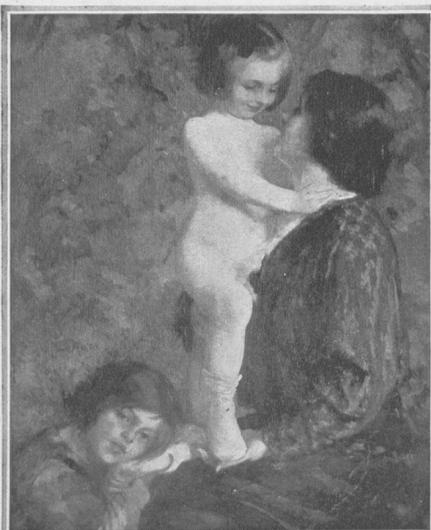

THE AVENUE—Colin Campbell Cooper.

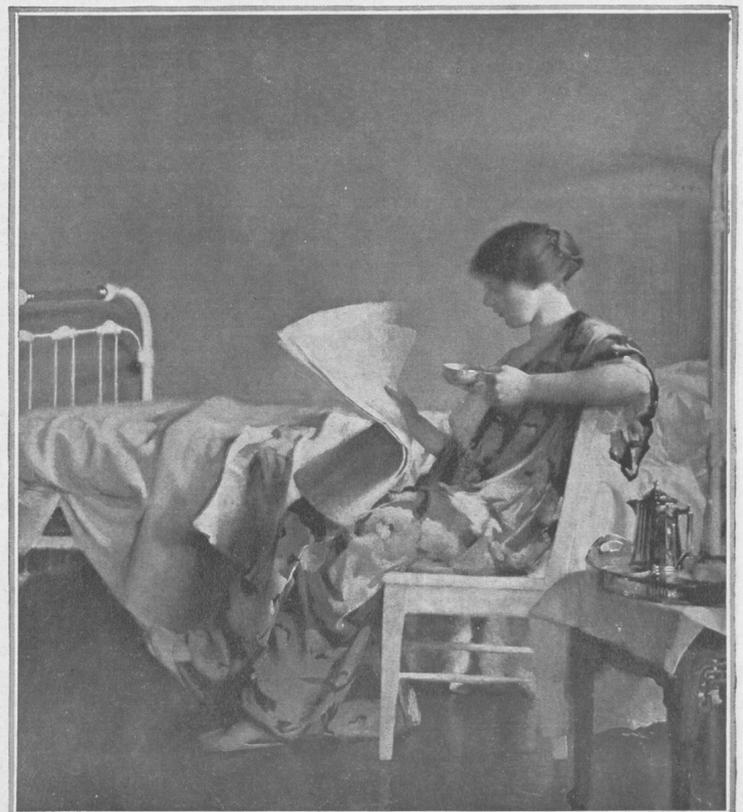

PORTRAIT OF SADIE KERR—Mary Green Blumenschein.

FAIRY TALES—
Lydia Field Emmett.
(Photos by Peter A. Juley.)

THE FAMILY—Ivan Olinsky.

THE MORNING PAPER—William Paxton.