

CLEVER THEATRE FOLK IN NEWEST COMEDY OFFERINGS

SCENE FROM "THE RULE OF THREE,"
AT THE HARRIS THEATRE
Vivian Tobin, Will Archie and Francis Byrne in the Second Act

INEZ PLUMMER AND FRANK CRAVEN
In "Too Many Cooks," at the 39th Street Theatre
(Photos by White.)

IRENE
FENWICK
AND
FRANK B. THOMAS.

In
"Along Came Ruth,"
at the
Gaiety Theatre

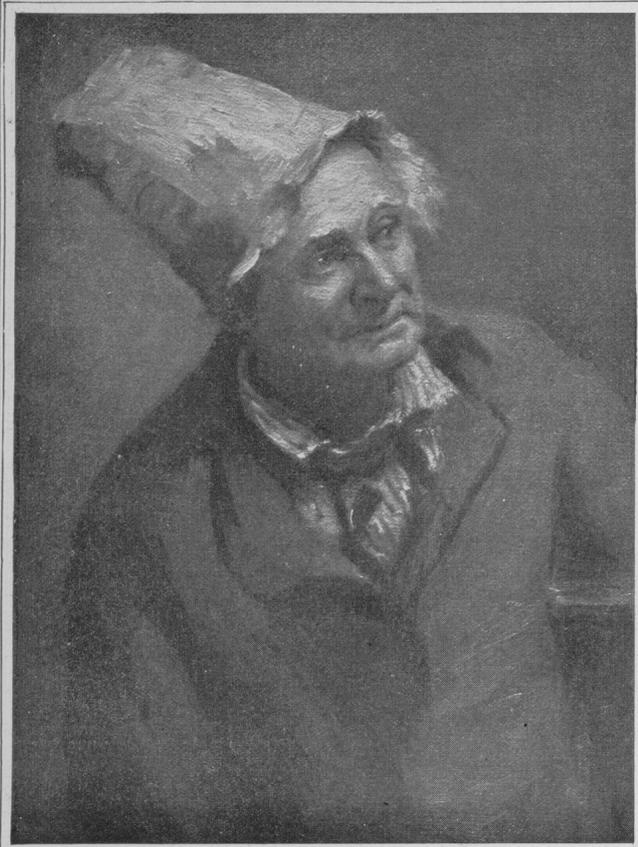

Striking Photograph of Florence Reed,
Appearing in "The Yellow Ticket"
at the Eltinge Theatre

Artists, Actors For a Night

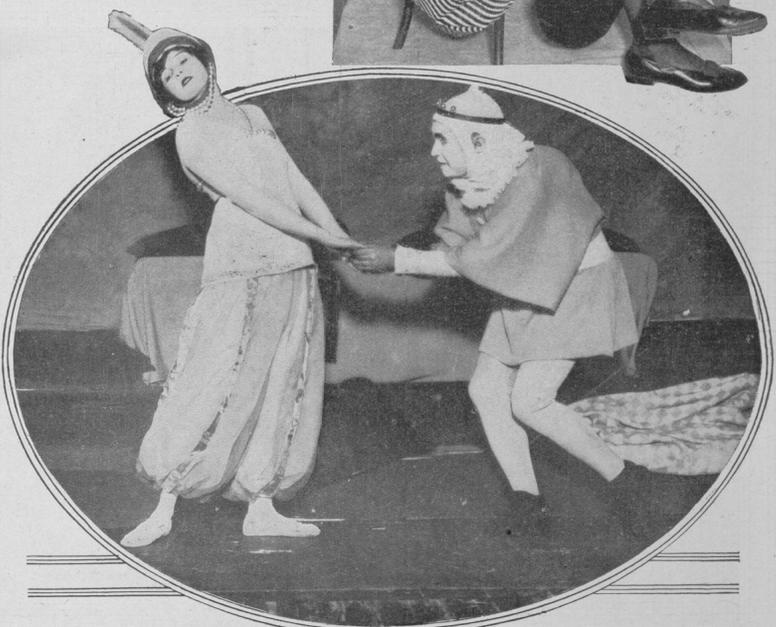

WILL FOSTER
As a "Chorus Lady"
(Photo by Paul Thompson.)

Portrait of "Joe" Jefferson as Rip Van Winkle, Destroyed by Fire
This Notable Painting of the Famous Actor in His Most Celebrated Role,
Made from Life by Miss Swinton, and Loaned to the Gamut Club, Was Burned in the Gibson Studios Fire. (Photo (C) by Curtis & Campbell, Boston.)

Robert J. Wildhack as Princess Hoya De
Monterey, with the Famous "Debutante Slouch." (Photo by Paul Thompson.)

C.B. FALLS AND MISS KAY LAURELL IN A SCENE FROM "PERFECTLY HAPPY"
One of the Two Playlets Presented by the Illustrators' Society on Their Annual Dramatic Night (Photo by Underwood & Underwood.)