

LITTLE FRENCH GIRL PLACING FLOWERS ON THE GRAVE OF HER SOLDIER BROTHER.
(Photo from International News Service.)

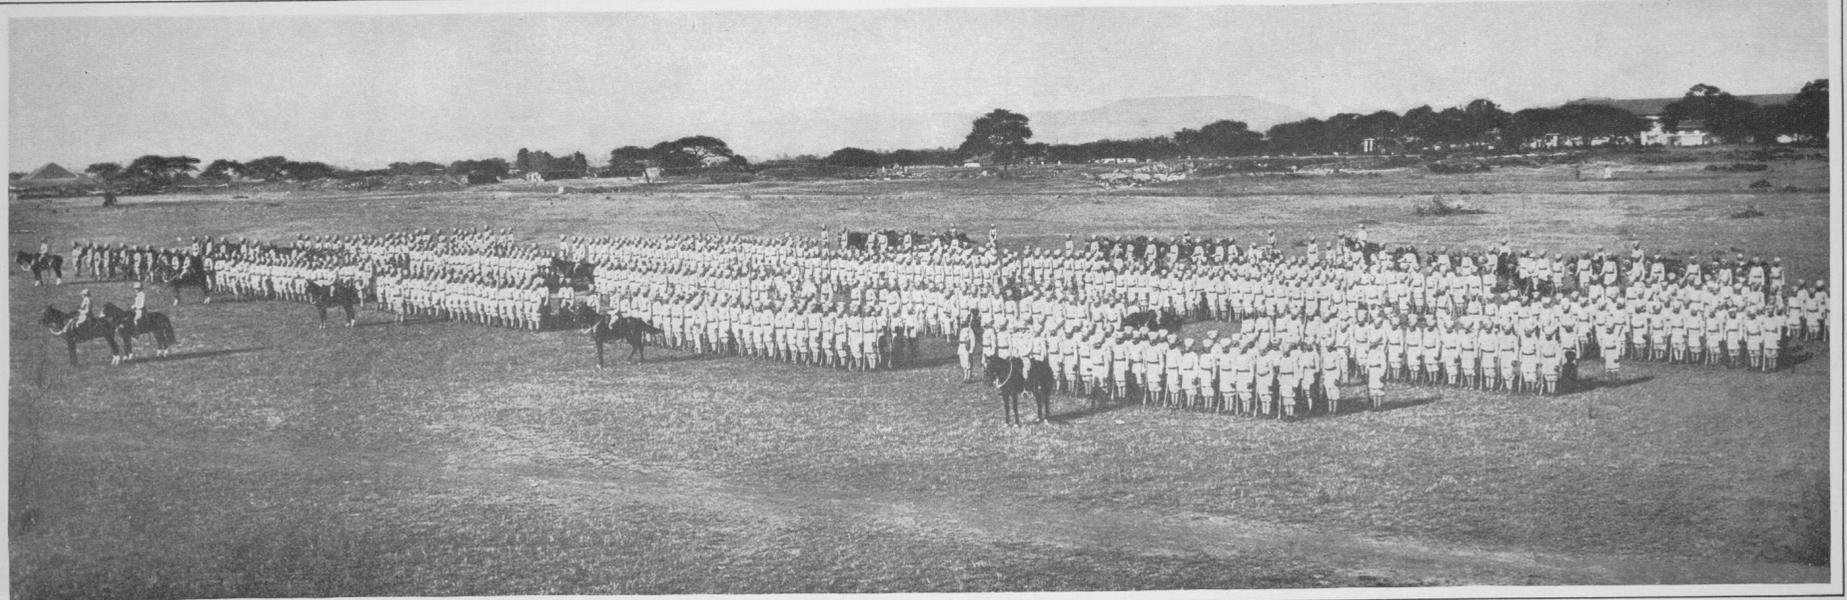

FIFTEEN GERMAN OFFICERS, KILLED ON THE BATTLEFRONT IN WESTERN FRANCE, IN A SINGLE GRAVE DECORATED WITH THEIR HELMETS. The Inscription, Translated, Reads "For King and Country."
(Photo (C) by American Press Assn.)

Allied Soldiers in the Trenches in Flanders Trying to Locate Hostile Sharpshooters.

BERLIN MAIDS AND MATRONS MAKING "CLOUTS" FOR THE USE OF GERMAN SOLDIERS IN THE DAMP, COLD TRENCHES IN KEEPING THEIR FEET WARM.
(Photos from Paul Thompson.)

THE FORTY-EIGHTH PIONEERS. A NOTABLE BRITISH EAST INDIAN REGIMENT, MOBILIZED AND READY TO LEAVE INDIA FOR EUROPE.