

MAYOR MITCHEL SPEAKING AT THE DEDICATION OF THE FOUNTAIN
ERECTED IN STRAUS PARK, BROADWAY, 106TH STREET AND WEST END
AVENUE, IN MEMORY OF ISIDOR STRAUS AND HIS WIFE MRS IDA
STRAUS, WHO LOST THEIR LIVES IN THE TITANIC DISASTER
Behind, Right to Left, are Ex-Mayor Seth Low, Park Commissioner Ward, and
Supreme Court Justice Samuel Greenbaum
(Augustus Lukaczam, sculptor of figure; Everts Tracy, architect. Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

MEMBERS OF THE STRAUS FAMILY AT THE FOUNTAIN DEDICATION
They Are, Left to Right, Jesse Isidor Straus, Mrs. Herbert A. Scheffel, Mrs.
Jesse Isidor Straus and Children, Evelyn and Richard, Mrs. Herbert N.
Straus, and Mrs. Oscar S. Straus, on the Extreme Right.

MARCUS D. RICHARDS AND BRIDE, Formerly Miss Helen Field Gillette, Grandniece of the Late Marshall Field of Chicago, With Her Bridesmaids on the Staircase of the Gillette Home, Hudson, N. Y.
(Photos © by Underwood & Underwood.)

PORTRAIT OF THE ARTIST'S DAUGHTER, BY THOMAS
GAINSBOROUGH, From the Morris K. Jesup Collection
Bequeathed to the Metropolitan Museum by Mrs. Jesup and Just Put on Exhibition

The Baroness De Beville, Daughter of Baron De Beville, and William Astor Chanler, Who Have Been Chosen to Head the Girls' and Boys' Organizations for Helping the Children of the Warring Nations