

MME. MAITRE, THE RED CROSS NURSE AND WIFE OF THE FRENCH DEPUTY FROM SAONE-ET-LOIRE, IS KISSED ON THE CHEEK BY GENERAL GAREAU AFTER HAVING BEEN DECORATED BY HIM WITH THE LEGION OF HONOR, AWARDED FOR BRAVERY UNDER FIRE. Mme. Maitre Has Been Wounded More Than Once in Her Country's Service, and Is Said to Have Received More Decorations Than Any Woman in France. The Ceremony Shown Here Is Taking Place in the Court of the Invalides.

LIEUTENANT JOSEPH O. TAYLOR AND BRIDE, Formerly Miss Ruby Knight, Who Were Wedded Over the Telephone While She Was in Bainbridge, Ga., and He at Camp Mills, Mineola L. I.

"WHISKY" AND "SODA," MASCOTS OF THE LAFAYETTE ESCADRILLE, THE CRACK FLYING SQUADRON IN THE FRENCH ARMY COMPOSED OF AMERICAN AVIATORS. (© I. F. S.)

PREMIER PAUL PAINLEVE AND THE NEW FRENCH CABINET FORMED BY HIM. Seated, Left to Right, Are: MM. David, Clavelle, Chaumet, Perot, Barthou, Bourgeois, Painleve, Ribot, Doumer, Dupuy, Klotz, Steeg, and Loucheur. Standing: MM. de Monzie, V. Peytral, Dalimier, Vincent, Godart, Besnard, Clementel, Bourelly, Renard, Mourier, Morel, Masse, and Dumesnil.

WILDA BENNETT, IN "THE RIVIERA GIRL," AT THE NEW AMSTERDAM THEATRE. (Sarony.)

ITALIAN SOLDIERS CONSTRUCTING A PONTOON BRIDGE ON THE ISONZO RIVER. They Are Shown Throwing a Camouflage of Tall Marsh Grass Over the pontoons Already Prepared. (Underwood & Underwood.)

ELINOR SINCLAIR, IN "HITCHY KOO," AT THE FORTY-FOURTH STREET THEATRE. (Jean de Strelecki.)