

Battle and After-
Battle Scenes
on the Cambrai Front

GERMAN PRISONERS CAPTURED ON THE CAMBRAI FRONT OPERATING A WINDLASS FOR HAULING UP BRITISH WOUNDED WHO HAVE RECEIVED "FIRST AID" AT AN ADVANCED UNDERGROUND DRESSING STATION OF A HIGHLAND BATTALION.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

BRITISH EAST COUNTY TROOPS OCCUPY A GERMAN SECOND-LINE TRENCH BEFORE CAMBRAI, MOUNTING THEIR MACHINE GUNS JUST BEYOND IT.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

"HOBEY" BAKER, Former Princeton Football Captain, Now a Lieutenant in the American Flying Corps in France, Who Has Scored His First "Down" Against German Airmen.
(© Western Newspaper Union.)

GERMAN PRISONERS CAPTURED AT CAMBRAI BRINGING IN ONE OF THEIR OWN WOUNDED OVER THE DUCK-BOARD TRACK WHICH HERE BRIDGES A SHELL-DESTROYED TREE.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

LEE DE FOREST, WIRELESS INVENTOR, AND MISS NANCY MAYO, Crossing the Hudson Opposite 230th Street, New York City, Which Is Said to be the Lowest Point on the Hudson at Which the River Has Been Frozen Across in Many Years Sufficiently Hard to Bear a Man's Weight.
(Paul Thompson.)

TREES OF GREAT SIZE, AS MAY BE SEEN BY COMPARISON WITH THE FIGURE SHOWN IN THE LEFT FOREGROUND, CUT DOWN BY THE GERMANS ON THE ROAD TO CAMBRAI TO HINDER THE BRITISH ADVANCE.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

MALCOLM SCHLOSS, City College '16, Who Has Won for the City College Ambulance, Which He Drives in France, Its Right to Bear the French Cross of War.
(Bain News Service.)

LADY READING, WIFE OF LORD READING, THE NEW BRITISH HIGH COMMISSIONER AND SPECIAL AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED STATES.
(Western Newspaper Union.)