

REMARKABLE PANORAMIC VIEW OF THE GARGARO VALLEY, AT THE FOOT OF MONTE SANTO, WAR-SWEPT BY THE OPPOSING AUSTRO-GERMAN AND ITALIAN ARMIES. In the Foreground Can Plainly Be Seen a Village. Every House of Which Has Been Riddled by Shell Fire. (Frank L. Swaab.)

ITALIAN PATROL BOATS ARMED WITH RAPID-FIRE GUNS ON LAKE OF GARDA.

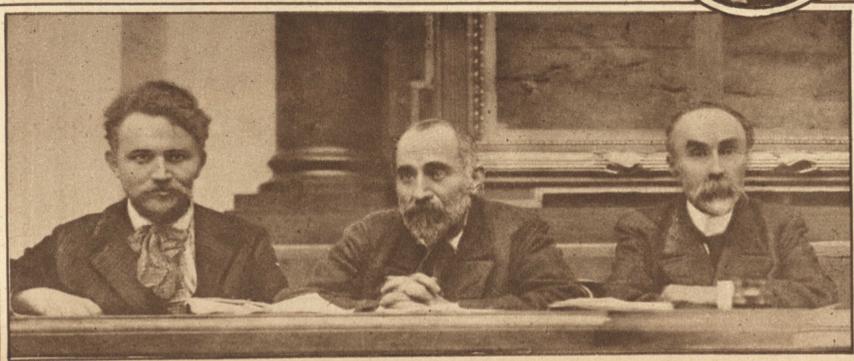

MAJOR B. S. PRENTICE, ON BEHALF OF THE AMERICAN RED CROSS, PRESENTING AMBULANCES TO THE ITALIAN RED CROSS, BEFORE THE HEAD-QUARTERS OF THE AMERICAN UNIT IN MILAN. On the Platform, Left to Right, Are: Commander Fisher of the French Expeditionary Forces in Italy, North Winship, American Consul at Milan; Next But One, General Gastaldello, Prefect of Milan; Major Prentice, and the Mayor of Milan.

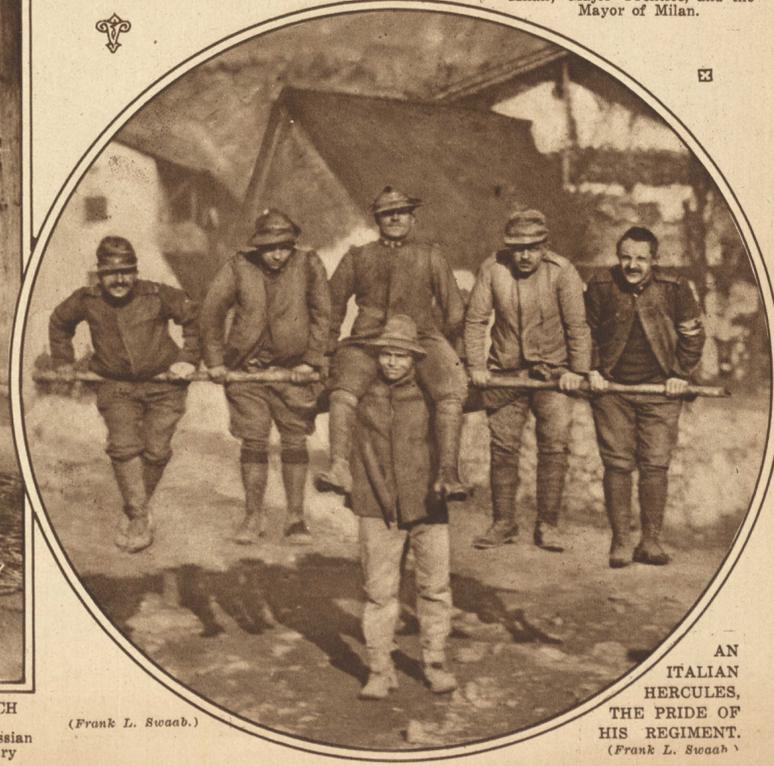

FRENCH MATRONS ON WHOM THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT HAS CONFERRED THE WAR CROSS For Having Remained in Verdun Throughout the Long Siege to Nurse the Wounded in Their Hospital. Many Times Bombarded and Damaged by Bursting Shells. They Are, Left to Right, Mme. Paque, Mme. Godet, and Mme. Hartz. (© Kadel & Herbert.)

GENERAL LAURUS GEORGIEVITCH KORNILOFF, Former Commander in Chief of the Russian Armies, Who Is Now Head of a Military Force Battling With the Bolsheviki.

LEADERS OF THE RUSSIAN DEMOCRACY OPPOSED TO THE BOLSHEVIKI. They Are, Left to Right, Messrs. Polechanow, Tscheidze, and Skobelew.

AN ITALIAN HERCULES, THE PRIDE OF HIS REGIMENT. (Frank L. Swaab.)