

JOSEPHUS DANIELS, SECRETARY OF THE NAVY, ABOUT TO ADDRESS THE FAMOUS AMERICAN 2D DIVISION, Composed of the 9th and 23d Infantry Regiments of Regulars and the 5th and 6th Regiments of Marines, Which Stopped the Germans at Chateau-Thierry and Turned Them Back from Paris at Vaux, Retroscha and Belleau Wood, the Ceremony Here Shown Taking Place at Vallendar, Germany, Where the 2d Division is a Unit of the Army of Occupation. On the Platform with Secretary Daniels Are: Mrs. Daniels, General John J. Pershing, and the Naval Officers Who Accompanied Secretary Daniels Aboard. (© Schatts, from Underwood & Underwood.)

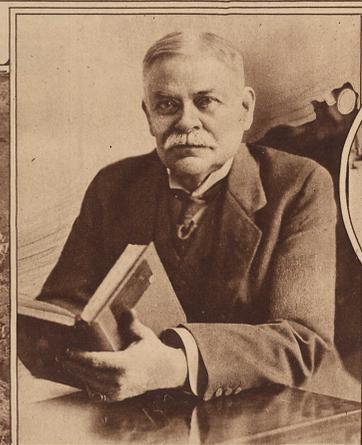

SECRETARY DANIELS, ON HIS RECENT VISIT TO THE RHINELAND, DECORATING WITH THE D. S. C. HEROES OF THE 2D DIVISION. (International Film Service.)

POLISH PEASANTS ARRIVING IN PARIS TO PRESENT THE CAUSE OF THEIR COUNTRYMEN PERSONALLY BEFORE PRESIDENT WILSON AND PREMIER CLEMENCEAU. (© Keystone View Company.)

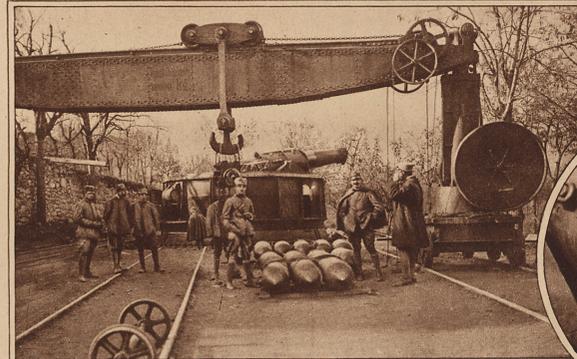

AIRPLANE VIEW OF THE TOWN OF VAUX, WHERE THE AMERICAN 2D DIVISION TURNED BACK THE GERMAN DRIVE TOWARD PARIS. From a Photograph Taken by the American Air Service.

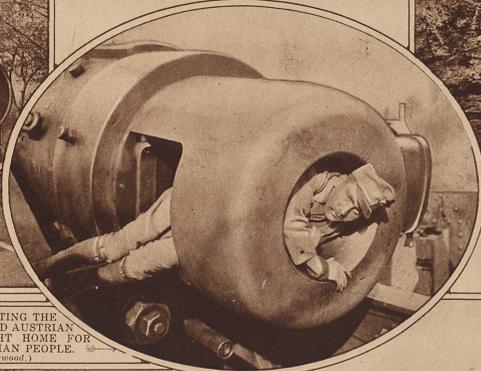

DR. THOMAS NELSON PAGE of Virginia, American Author and Ambassador to Rome, Who Is Expected Soon to Retire and Return to This Country. From His Most Recent Photograph Received in This Country. (Times Wide World Photos.)

MARSHAL JOFFRE REVIEWING THE CADETS OF THE ECOLE POLYTECHNIQUE, of Which He Was Himself a Student Many Years Ago; These Men, Having Suspended Their Studies in the Midst of the War and Won Their Commissions on the Field of Battle, Now Returning to Complete Their Studies. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

ITALIANS BRINGING IN A HUGE AUSTRIAN GUN OF 420MM. CAPTURED JUST AT THE CLOSE OF THE WAR. (Underwood & Underwood.)

ITALIAN OFFICER DEMONSTRATING THE ENORMOUS SIZE OF A CAPTURED AUSTRIAN TROPHY NOW BEING BROUGHT HOME FOR THE INSPECTION OF THE ITALIAN PEOPLE. (Underwood & Underwood.)

LIEUTENANT "BABY STELLA" CARMIKLE, Only 19, and Youngest of the American Salvation Army Officers and "Doughtnut Girls" with the A. E. F. in France, Who Has Just Returned to This Country to Aid in the Salvation Army Drive.

WASH DAY BESIDE THE MOSELLE CANAL: A DOUGHBOY OF THE 82D DIVISION ASSISTED IN THE MONDAY MORNING PERFORMANCE BY A FRIENDLY NATIVE. (Central News Service.)

ADMIRAL SIR DAVID BEATTY IN PARIS. Standing with Him at Salute in Honor of the Marsaillaise Are General Berteulot, Military Governor of Paris, and Members of Their Staffs. (Underwood & Underwood.)

AMERICAN ARMY CREW IN THE INTERNATIONAL REGATTA HELD ON THE SEINE AT PARIS, in Which Were Entered Crews Representing America, New Zealand, Newfoundland, Alsace-Lorraine, Portugal, and France. In the Group, Left to Right, Are: Lieutenant P. J. Brooks, Cornell; Captain H. B. Cabot, Harvard; Captain R. R. Fuller, 28th Engineers; Lieutenant J. Jeffries, Harvard; Captain J. Brinckhoff, Cornell; Lieutenant J. H. McHenry, Yale; Private R. G. Bird, Cornell; Lieutenant C. J. Cole, Yale, and, Kneeling in Front, Lieutenant G. P. Gale, 15th Aero Squadron, Coxswain. (© Keystone View.)

SKILLED AMERICAN WORKMEN, ATTACHED TO THE AMERICAN AVIATION SECTION AT MILAN, GROUPED WITH GIANNI CAPRONI, THE ITALIAN AIRPLANE INVENTOR, BEFORE AN AIRPLANE OF GREAT SIZE WHOLLY CONSTRUCTED BY THEM. (Williams Service.)

AMERICAN MILITARY BAND MARCHING THROUGH THE ARC DE TRIOMPHE, PARIS. (© Underwood & Underwood.)