

PARIS FROM THE EIFFEL TOWER: THE FIRST PHOTOGRAPH TO BE TAKEN IN FIVE YEARS FROM THE LOFTIEST STRUCTURE IN THE WORLD.

the Tower, Closed to All Visitors Throughout the Period of the War, Having Just Been Opened to the Public.

(© International Film Service.)

ADMIRAL ALEXANDER KOLCHAK, HEAD OF THE RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT AT OMSK, Which the United States Government Has Been Urged to Recognize, Seated With His Aids in an Automobile in Front of His Palace at Omsk.

(© International Film Service.)

(© International Film Service.)

PRESIDENT WILSON MAKING HIS "REPORT" DIRECTLY TO THE PEOPLE

on the Treaty with Germany and the League of Nations in a Tour Which Takes Him to the Pacific and Back. He Is Here Shown, with Mrs. Wilson at His Side, Riding Through the Thronged Streets of Columbus, Ohio, Where He Opened His Campaign.

THE PRINCE OF WALES, Now Touring Canada and Soon to Visit New York, Standing Beside His Great-Grandmother, Queen Victoria. From a Rare Photograph Taken at the Osborne House, Isle of Wight, England, in 1900, When the Prince Was Six Years Old. (From Times Wide World Photos.)

THE PRESIDENT Keenly Observing the Great Crowds Which Everywhere Flocked to Greet Him on His Transcontinental Trip.

(Underwood & Underwood.)

PRINCE CAROL, CROWN PRINCE OF RUMANIA, AND THE FORMER Mlle. ZIZI LAMBRINO, the Beautiful Young Commoner with Whom He Contracted a Morganatic Marriage, and for Her Renouncing All Rights to His Throne. (International Film Service.)

HUIS DOORN, OR "THE HOUSE OF DOORN," NEW FOURTEENTH CENTURY MANSION IN HOLLAND, Purchased on Aug. 16 by the Former German Emperor, the Former Empress Making the Selection. This Is, So Far as Known, the First Photograph to Reach This Country of the Kaiser's New Estate. (© Times Wide World Photos.)