

Entrance to the woods of Caures, demolished in the German attack and a French counter attack.

Taking French wounded from the trenches of Verdun during a lull in the fighting.

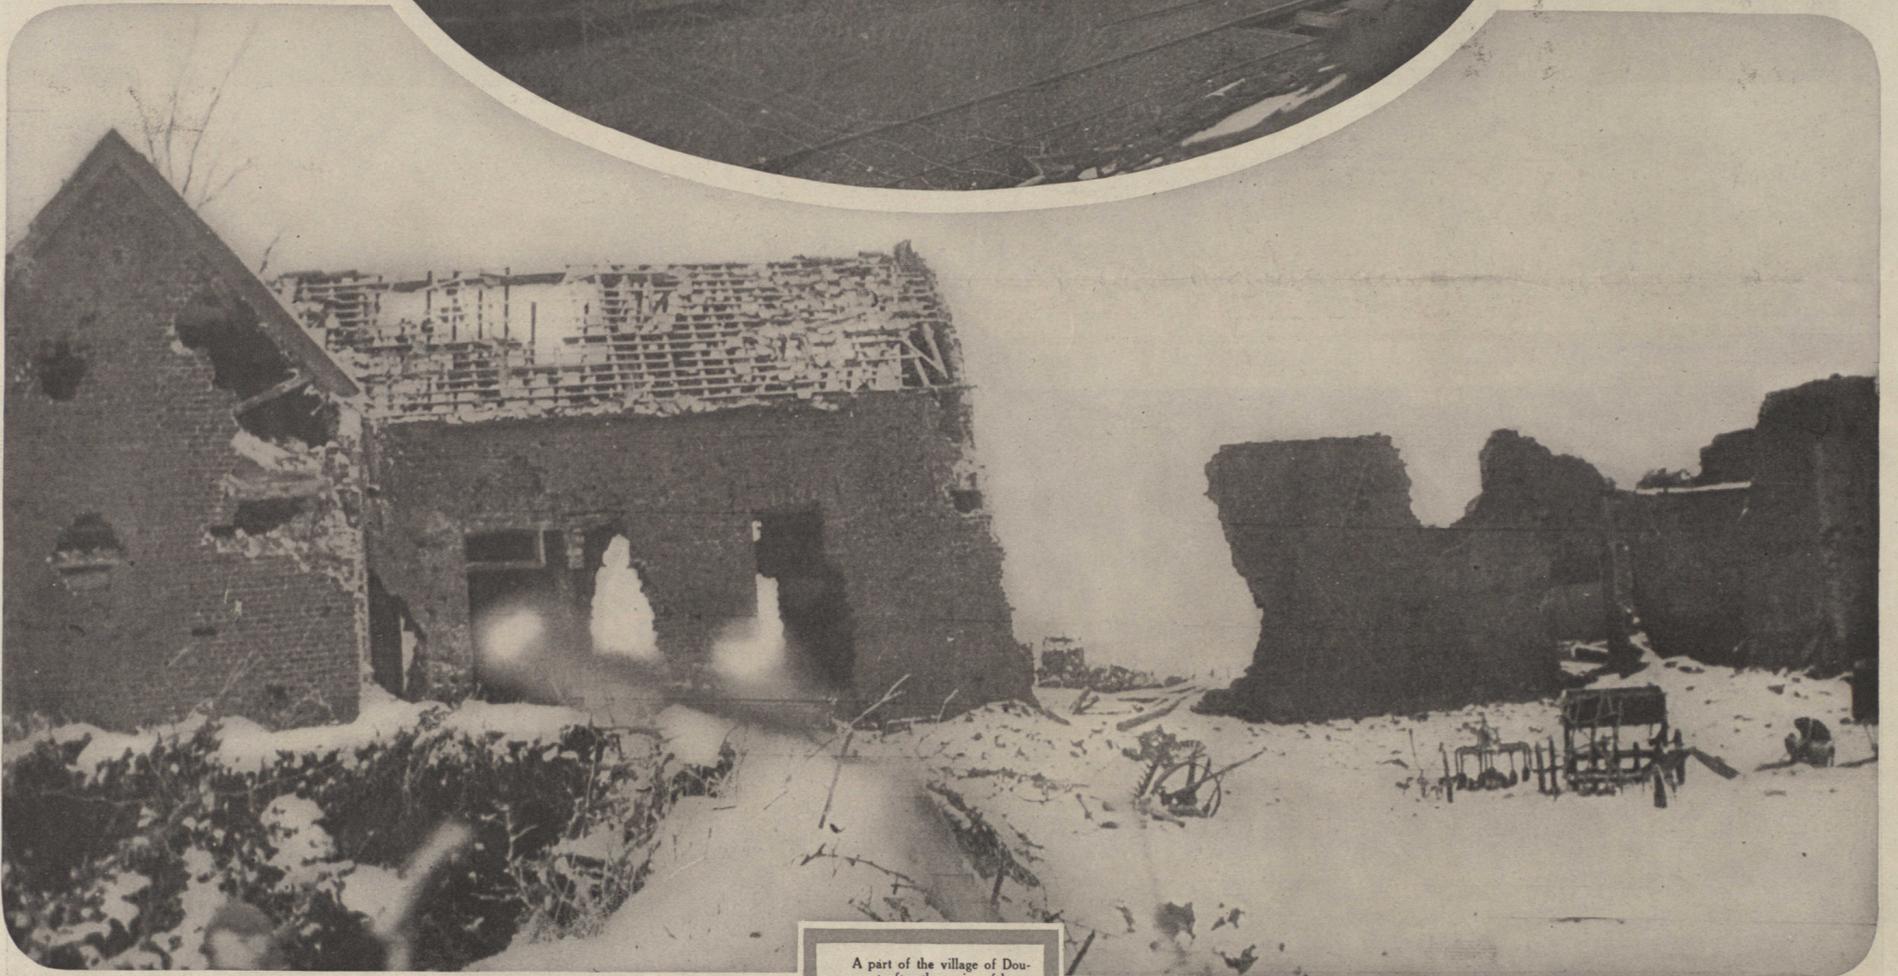

Scenes on Parts of the Battlefield of Verdun, Where the Fiercest Fighting on the French Front Since the Marne Has Taken Place.

Medem Photo Service.

The village of Nordont on fire under bombardment from German artillery.

A part of the village of Douaumont after the series of bombardments and attacks and counter attacks for its possession.

An armoured lookout in one of the French trenches about Verdun. The white line marks German trenches.

A German trench destroyed by French artillery fire.