HOTEL BELLECLAIRE
 NEW YORK
 Broadway at 17th St.
 Surfacta Cars at Door
 Subway at 79th St.
 Only a few minutes from the Shopping and Theatrical District.

A couple who live in the country eight months in the year and in New York for the other four months—came to the BELLECLAIRE for Sunday night dinner recently. They are staying at another very good hotel in New York, but the advertisements about the BELLECLAIRE'S good food attracted them—particularly the one about Apple Pie, of which they are very fond. After dinner, they sought the manager to express their satisfaction and added: "Your Apple Pie is better than the advertisement said it was." Good food certainly attracts people. The BELLECLAIRE'S rooms are always full and its restaurant trade is growing fast because it is becoming very generally known that a good meal can always be obtained, morning, noon or night, at a reasonable price.
