

Statuary, Portraying Society Children, Destroyed in the Fire Which Wrecked Pietro's Studio.

Marble bust of the late J. Pierpont Morgan. The head was cut off at the shoulders, as shown in an accompanying photograph. Underwood & Underwood

Bronze group of Mrs. Helen Gould Shepard and her nieces, Helen and Dorothy Gould, by Pietro. Original lost in the fire. Underwood & Underwood

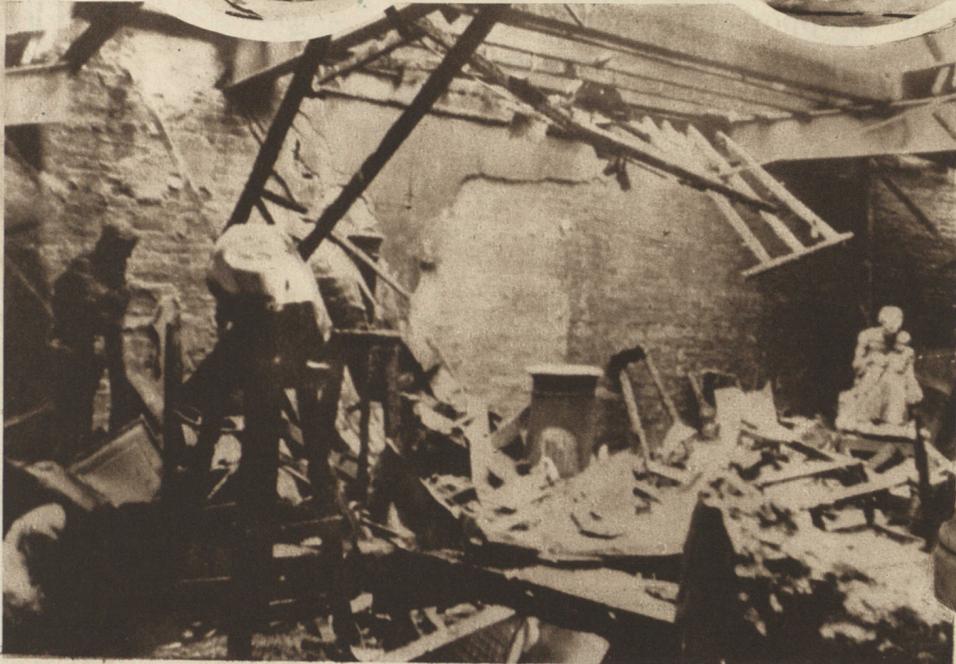

Life size marble bust of George Vanderbilt, son of Alfred G. Vanderbilt, by Pietro. Underwood & Underwood

Bust of Alfred G. Vanderbilt, son of the late Alfred G. Vanderbilt, by Pietro. Underwood & Underwood

Life size bust in marble of Helen and Dorothy Gould, daughters of Frank Gould, by Pietro, made for Mrs. Helen Gould Shepard. Underwood & Underwood

The ruins of Pietro's studio at 630 Fifth Avenue after the fire of April 5. On the left is shown the beheaded Morgan bust. Photo by J. R. Reid.