

Mrs. George F. Baker, jr., drives off while Mr. Baker and Mrs. James B. Eustis look on.

H. Perrin Beadleston driving from the first tee. Back of him are Gordon Smith, P. E. Wood and F. H. Davis.

THERE ARE OTHER DIVERSIONS AT PIPING ROCK, OF COURSE, BUT GOLF HAS THE CALL AT THIS SEASON.

Photographed for The Tribune by Edwin Levick.

Mrs. C. C. Auchincloss gets two hundred yards off the fifth tee.

A. J. Drexel Biddle, of Philadelphia, a Piping Rock enthusiast.

Mrs. James B. Eustis plays in a harem veil, but seldom loses the direction of the flag.

Mrs. Goadby Loew driving from the second tee with a follow through that should delight the club professional.

Miss Althea Gibb, who prefers a rolling fair green to the glassiest ballroom floor Long Island can boast of.

Miss Harriet Alexander and Winthrop W. Aldrich, who are soon to be married, find Piping Rock an autumn joy.
