DETAILED DESCRIPTIONS OF ALL THESE UTENSILS ON PAGE 6, PART IV.

WESTINGHOUSE ELECTRIC TOASTER STOVE. Made by the Westinghouse Electric and Mfg. Co., East Pittsburgh, Penn. Light housekeeping, with a table stove like this, is as much fun as a picnic. You can sit at the table and make toast or hot cakes, grill a chop, fry bacon, eggs or potatoes, and generally play at cooking. Price, $6.

WALKER HAND DISHWASHER. Made by Walker Bros. Company, Syracuse, N. Y. This is a dishwasher that is worth the room it takes in the kitchen, because it is of real and practical value to the housewife with a family of moderate size. It is like the electric dishwasher made by the same manufacturer and illustrated in these pages two weeks ago, except that it is run by hand. It can either stand on a portable metal base or be fastened to a wall bracket and connected with supply pipes and drain. It does the work quickly and thoroughly and so is generally a labor-saver. Comes in two sizes. Prices, $24 and $30.

WHITE MOP WRINGER. Made by the White Mop Wringer Co., Fultonville, N. Y. With the growing scarcity of scrubbers, an efficient, hard-working mop wringer is certainly a handy thing to have in the family. It does away with procrastination, for one thing, because it is a brave housewife who looks first at the kitchen floor and then at her well-kept hands—and then grins her teeth and gets the mop! This mop wringer makes quite unnecessary that despairing glance at pretty hands, for it can be attached to any pail and will wring either a flat or a round mop in response to a simple pressure on the lever. It works easily and will not wear out in a hurry. Made in four sizes. Prices, $1.50 to $2.

THERMOS THERDUC LUNCHEON KIT NO. 220. Made by the American Thermos Bottle Co., 35-37 West 31st Street, New York. A lunch-box and a thermos bottle in a neat little suitcase is enough to reconcile even a school-boy—or a girl who hates bundles,—to carrying a nourishing luncheon to school. The bottle holds hot soup, cocoa or any other nourishing drink, and the box keeps the luncheon fresh and dainty. Price, complete, $4.
