MARGARET

97 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn

Within a stone's throw of the harbor, the Margaret's windows show the full panorama of ships that pass in and out of the port. Atop the building is a delightful solarium, where our guests can enjoy the sunshine and invigorating air, with a view of all that goes on for miles around. The financial district is just across the river.

Rates are famously low.

Large room with bath (two persons), $45 per month; two rooms with bath, $60.

Quiet, refinement, homelikeness, perfect service and proximity to all centres are but the more important advantages of the Margaret. Meals table d'hote and a la carte.

Before taking winter quarters let me show you one of our unusual apartments.

ADVEERTISEMENT

Chauncey M. Depew, at the age of 82, said that the way to prolong life is to live right, and to continue to take a lively interest in the world's affairs.

One of the advantages of living at the HOTEL BELLECLAIRE is that the food served is wholesome and non-dyspeptic. As people move along toward sixty, then seventy, then eighty, then ninety—the food they eat must be just right. BELLECLAIRE FOOD IS JUST RIGHT!

Another advantage of living at the HOTEL BELLECLAIRE is that everybody keeps young because there is no opportunity to lose one's interest in the bright, cheerful things of life.

There's music, laughter, good cheer—everywhere in the Hotel. So everybody keeps young and happy.

There are guests here who have outlived the allotted time—70 years—which David said was the limit of life; but you would not know they had done so, they are so young in action and thought.

One guest, a great deal older than Mr. Depew, eats three square meals a day, smokes big, black cigars, and enjoys life. Old? Not he!

We will not guarantee you long life if you live at the BELLECLAIRE—because that is not in our hands. But we will guarantee that, as long as you live here, you will have the comforts which conduce to long life.

ROBERT D. BLACKMAN.
