

THE ADVISORY COMMISSION OF THE NATIONAL DEFENCE COMMITTEE OF JOURNALISM; (2) Mr. Bowerman, of the British Parliament; (3) Samuel G. Morrison, A. F. L.; (7) John Patterson, National Cash Register Company; (11) J. D. Rockefeller, jr.; (12)

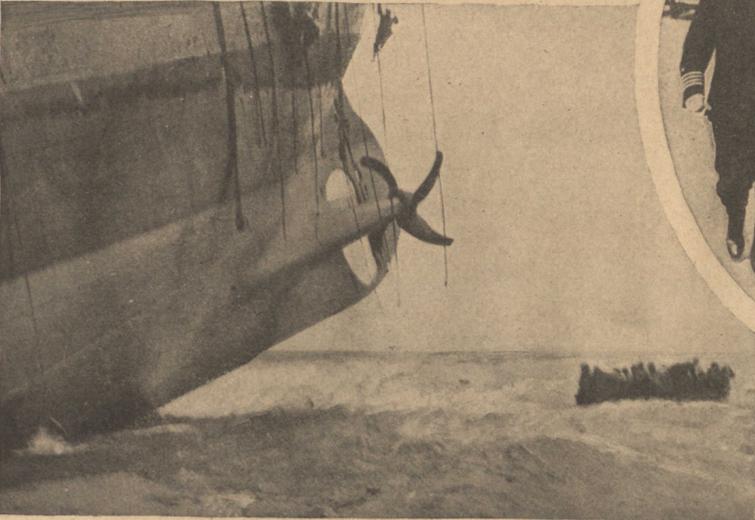

Part of the Brooklyn Home Defence League at signal drill in the Cypress Hills district (Highland Park). The men meet every Sunday morning for drill under two sergeants of the U. S. Army.

The Brooklyn Chapter of the Red Cross is reviewed in parade by Ex-President Taft (x).

Photo Central News Service.

Admiral Sims, of the U. S. N., photographed in Paris with two naval attachés and an attaché of the American Embassy.

Photo Pictorial Press.

Ten pretty ushers at the fete given by the Garden Club.

A last-minute escape from a torpedoed steamer. To the left is seen one man who has just let himself down a rope. Another is trying the same method in the upper centre, while to the right the last lifeboat is pulling away.

Photo © Underwood & Underwood.

Company F, of the New York colored troops, on a hike caught in the midst of whatever is the Ethiopian equivalent for "chow," or, in vulgar parlance, "luncheon."

Photo Press Illustrating Service.

A panoramic view of the drill barracks are shown to the right, with the new quarters erected for the