97 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn.
As much a part of New York as is New York that part of New York that cannot be seen from New York proper, the Hotel Margaret, situated on the highest point of land in Brooklyn, is only a twelve minutes' ride from the City Hall.

With every facility for the entertainment of the refined guest—with service second to no

HOTEL BELLECLAIRE
NEW YORK

Broadway at 77th St.
Surface Cars at Door
Subway at 79th St.

Only a few minutes
from the Shopping and Theatrical District.

People who live at the Hotel Belleclaire regularly often entertain friends at dinner just the same as they would if they were maintaining homes of their own. And whenever they do entertain, they have the satisfaction of hearing their friends express their pleasure with the food—how well it is cooked and how nicely it is served. There is a marked difference between entertaining in one's home and in a home hotel. In the latter you have the facilities of a kitchen in which there are several cooks, each one of whom is a specialist. In addition, there is a menu from which it is easy to select a variety of dishes certain to satisfy anybody's taste. Neither "specialist" cooks nor variety of dishes are possible in a private home without incurring great expense. In the Belleclaire one gets everything that is wanted at a minimum of cost.

Wash Day on the U. S. S. Oklahoma. The Atlantic Ocean does its bit by helping to scrub the deck.

Backed by these giant 14-inch guns, our jacksies fear no enemy warships. There are ten in the Oklahoma's batteries. Superdreadnoughts of the Pennsylvania class carry twelve.

America is beginning to build a formidable airship fleet. Here is one of our first naval observation balloons, termed "sausage" for short. It is inflated on the deck of the ship, and held captive at the desired height.

Mine laying is a specialist's job. The boys of our navy are getting expert training that will be put to good use whenever there's danger of an enemy fleet visiting us.
