

Cuba proves an ideal training place for a division of U. S. Marines. Their camp is near the battlefield of San Juan. The troops are making unusual headway, as they have not the weather conditions to contend with which handicap training in the States.

Western News Union

Colonel Roosevelt greets the boys of the diet squad. These twenty-four public school boys are having an extra meal each day in an effort to gain weight.

International Film

Mayor Hylan greets the Serbian Mission. Left to right: General Michailo Rachitch, Police Lieutenant Kennell, Mayor Hylan, Dr. Milenko Vesitch, head of the mission, and Dr. I. Michailovitch, Serbian Minister to the United States.

International Film

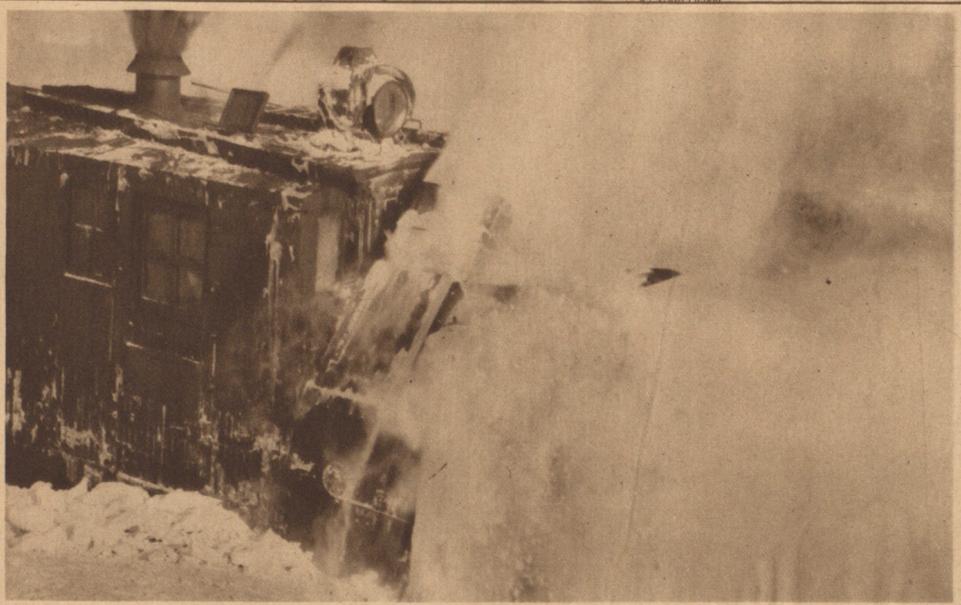

American Red Cross ambulance to Italy. From left to right, the ambulance drivers: Hunter, Collinton, Weyche, Prentice (head of the section) adjutant of Mr. Prentice, Griffin, Gallispie, Uttassy.

© Underwood

Ruins of the American Consulate at Guatemala City after the great earthquake which began Christmas Night.

International Film

During the great snowstorm in the Middle West rotary snow ploughs were imported from the Rocky Mountains to Illinois. This plough is going through a drift thirty feet deep.

International Film

Somewhere in Jersey there's coal ready for shipment to New York.

Underwood & Underwood