Premier Clemenceau and General Pershing at Versailles, France.

From a hitherto unpublished photograph by the Signal Corps, U. S. A.
Copyrighted by the Committee on Public Information.

In the background is General Pershing's automobile, identified by the four stars on the windshield. This is one of a number of limousines used by the General Staff of the Army and built by the Locomobile Company of America at Bridgeport, Conn. A special limousine of the same make was purchased and shipped to France for the use of the President of the United States during the Peace Conference.
