

Capital and Seaport of Martyred Belgium

ANTWERP, THE CHIEF SEAPORT IN BELGIUM AND ONE OF THE GREATEST IN EUROPE, WAS CAPTURED BY THE GERMANS OCT. 9, 1914, AND HELD BY THEM UNTIL THE GREAT GERMAN RETREAT IN THE FALL OF 1918.

BRUSSELS, ONE OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL AND COSMOPOLITAN OF EUROPEAN CITIES, WAS OCCUPIED BY THE GERMANS AUG. 20, 1914, AND RE-ENTERED IN TRIUMPH BY KING ALBERT NOV. 22, 1918.