

The Czechoslovaks Who Have Organized a New State After Their Sturdy Fight Against Bolshevism in Russia

TROOPS OF THE PRAGUE GARRISON GATHERED AT THE CITY HALL TO SWEAR ALLEGIANCE TO THE NEW CZECHOSLOVAK REPUBLIC, NOV. 15, 1918.

CZECHOSLOVAK TROOPS, WHO HAD BEEN FIGHTING ON SIDE OF ALLIES ON WESTERN FRONT, CELEBRATING BASTILLE DAY IN PARIS.

NOVEL BRUSH-CAMOUFLAGED ARMORED TRAIN MANNED BY CZECHOSLOVAKS OF THE FIRST DIVISION. THE TRAIN HAD BEEN NAMED "THE EAGLE."

WELL-CLOTHED TROOPS OF CZECHOSLOVAKS IN FRONT OF THE RAILROAD STATION AT VLADIVOSTOK, READY TO CO-OPERATE WITH THE ALLIES.