

President Wilson's Trip to Paris Peace Congress

PRESIDENT WILSON LEFT THE UNITED STATES, DEC. 4, 1918, TO ATTEND THE PEACE CONGRESS AT PARIS AS A DELEGATE. THE GEORGE WASHINGTON, ON WHICH HE SAILED, IS HERE SHOWN LEAVING NEW YORK HARBOR, GUARDED BY SUBMARINE CHASERS.

THE PRESIDENT LANDED IN BREST DEC. 13 AND ARRIVED IN PARIS ON THE FOLLOWING DAY. THE PICTURE SHOWS HIM IN THE CARRIAGE WITH PRESIDENT POINCARE OF FRANCE ACKNOWLEDGING THE APPLAUSE OF THE GREAT CROWDS THAT GREETED HIM.

(© Kadet & Herbert.)

PRESIDENT FROM THE TOPMOST DECK OF THE GEORGE WASHINGTON, IMMEDIATELY ABOVE THE BRIDGE, LIFTING HIS HAT IN RECOGNITION OF THE CHEERS OF THE CROWD ON THE HOBOKEN PIER.

(© Paul Thompson.)