

BRITISH SOLDIERS, HURRIED IN MOTORBUSES TO THE FRONT, CHEERING AS THEY PASS THROUGH A FRENCH VILLAGE.
 (Photo © by American Press Assn.)

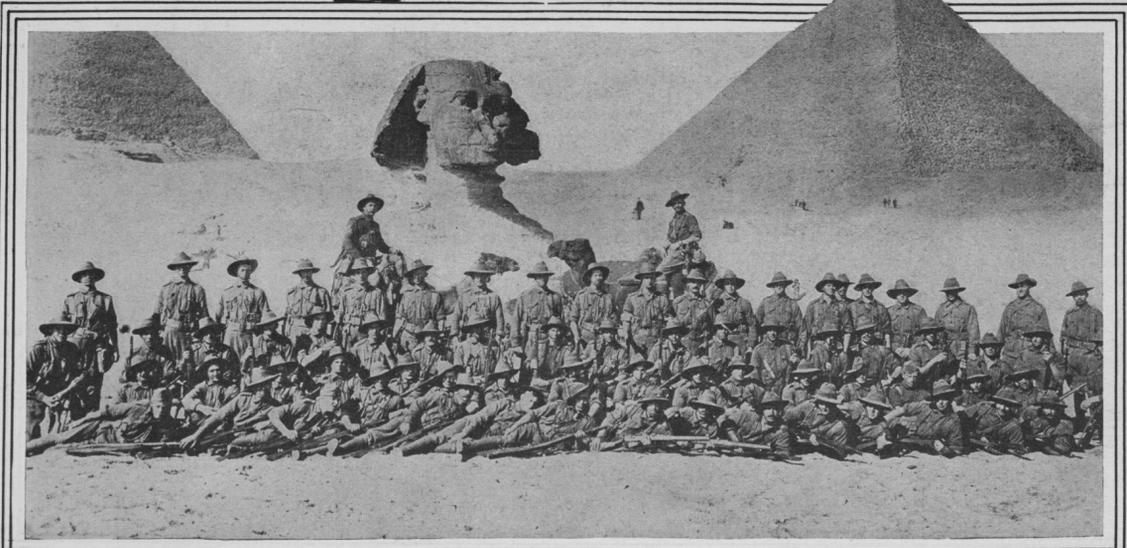

THE GERMAN EMPEROR WITH HIS TROOPS IN THE EAST. This Photograph, Taken on Feb. 7, Near Lowicz, on the Bzura River, Shows the Kaiser, in Conversation with Gen. von Mackensen, in the Centre, and a Fellow Officer.

(Photo © by American Press Assn.)

A GERMAN SUPPLY TRAIN HALTING FOR A REST IN RUSSIAN POLAND
 (Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

THE FIRST BATTALION, FIRST INFANTRY BRIGADE, AUSTRALIAN IMPERIAL FORCE, GATHERED AT THE FEET OF THE SPHINX
 (Photo by Paul Thompson.)

FRENCH PRIEST PRONOUNCING THE BENEDICTION AT MASS HELD IN A GLEN Behind the French Lines. This Photograph Was Made by a French Soldier Who Sent It to His Sister Here. The Monument on the Right Was Erected by French Soldiers to Their Comrades Killed in This War, Each Contribution Being Limited to a Cent.