

MR. QUIN-TARD'S WIRE-BOY OF PAIGNTON, Which Was Paired with Matford Vic, the Two Capturing the Prize for the Best Brace Shown.

GEORGE W. QUINTARD AND MATFORD VIC, HIS WIRE-HAIRED FOX TERRIER, WHICH, AT THE FORTIETH ANNUAL SHOW OF THE WESTMINSTER KENNEL CLUB, WAS FOR THE SECOND TIME IN SUCCESSION ADJUDGED THE BEST DOG OF ANY BREED ON EXHIBITION.

(Photos by Edwin Levick.)

MISS RUTH NEY-HART and Her Chows, Yuey and Corrissa.

(Photo © Underwood & Underwood.)

CHAMPION ORLIK O'VALLEY FARM, A WESTMINSTER CLUB PRIZE WINNER AMONG RUSSIAN WOLF HOUNDS.

(Photo © American Press Assn.)

"NELLY KABEL"—BY GARI MELCHERS.

From the Recent Paintings by This Artist Now on Exhibition at the Montross Gallery. (Photo © by Gari Melchers.)

CHARLES CHAPLIN, THE "MOVIE" COMEDIAN, SIGNING HIS NEW YEARLY CONTRACT, SAID TO BE FOR $10,000 A WEEK AND A BONUS OF $150,000. On His Right Are John F. Freuler, President of the Mutual Film Company, and Sidney Chaplin (standing), the Comedian's Brother and Business Adviser. (Photo © by Press Illustrating Co.)