Picture Section,
Rotogravure: Part 4

The New York Times

Sunday,
November 5, 1916

PRESIDENT WILSON SPEAKING FROM A TERRACE ON THE SHADOW LAWN GROUNDS ON YESTERDAY A WEEK AGO, "WOODROW WILSON AND NEW YORK DAY," WHEN NEARLY FIFTEEN THOUSAND PERSONS WENT FROM THIS CITY TO HEAR HIM. (Photo © International Film Service.)

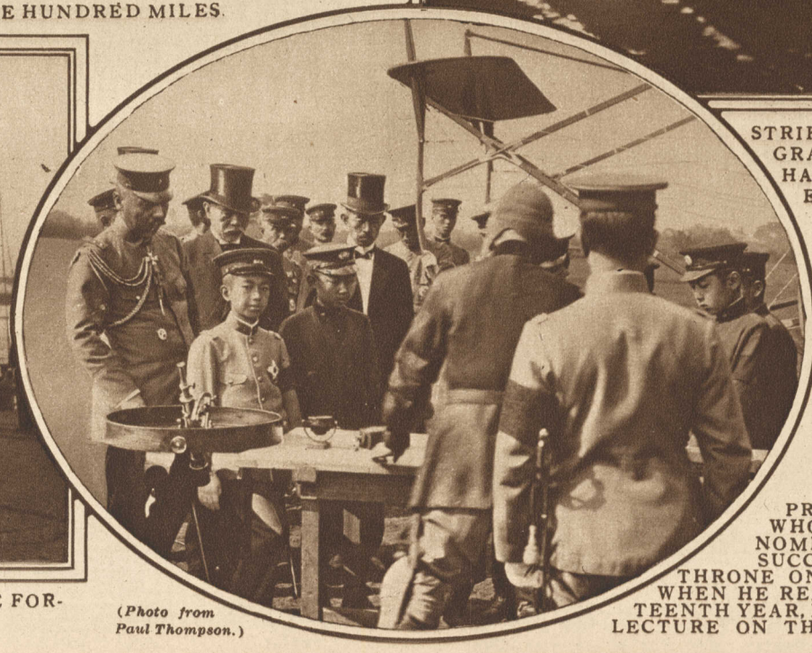
THE LITTLE DUKE DE CHAULNES,
Son of the Duchess Emmanuel De Chaulnes, and Grandson of Theodore P. Shonts, Wearing His French Uniform at White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia. (Photo © Underwood & Underwood.)

START OF THE AUTOMOBILE RACE AT SHEEPSHEAD BAY FOR THE HARKNESS GOLD TROPHY, WON BY "JACK" AIKEN IN A PEUGOT, WITH A NEW AMERICAN RECORD OF 56:37 MINUTES FOR ONE HUNDRED MILES.

(Photo by Kellar & White.)

STRIKING PHOTOGRAPH OF THE HARKNESS RACERS DASHING PAST THE GRANDSTAND, WITH A LOW OCTOBER SUN PLAYING ON THE TRACK.
(Photo by Kellar & White.)

QUEEN WILHELMINA OF THE NETHERLANDS RETURNING FROM A VISIT TO THE DUTCH FLEET OFF THE FORTIFIED SEAPORT OF HELDER.
(Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)



(Photo from Paul Thompson.)

THE CROWN PRINCE OF JAPAN, WHO WAS PUBLICLY NOMINATED AS THE SUCCESSOR TO THE THRONE ON LAST FRIDAY WHEN HE REACHED HIS FIFTEENTH YEAR, LISTENING TO A LECTURE ON THE AEROPLANE.