

BATTERY OF HEAVY BRITISH FIELD PIECES AND THEIR CREWS ON THE ROADSIDE NEAR NEUVILLE VITASSE, BRITISH WEST FRONT. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

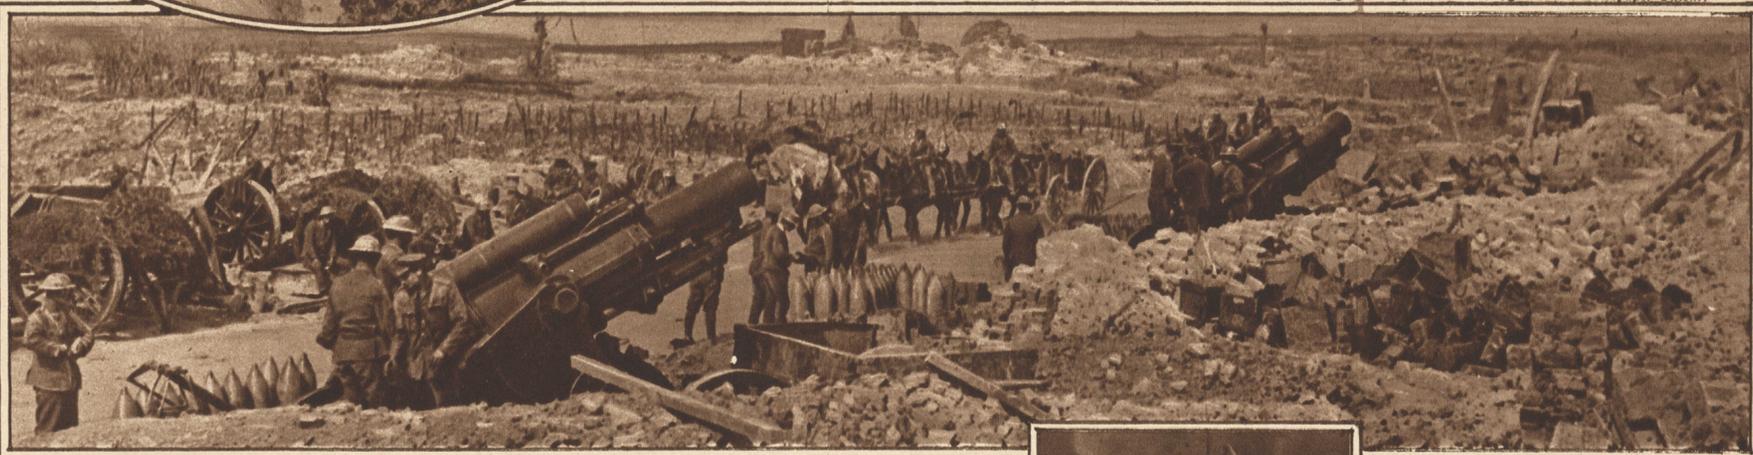

British Engineers On the Cambrai Front Clearing Up the Canal Du Nord After Its Recent Capture.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

CAMP MILLS, MINEOLA, L. I., WHERE THE RAINBOW DIVISION WENT INTO TRAINING PRIOR TO ITS DEPARTURE FOR FRANCE, ALMOST TOTALLY WRECKED BY WIND AND SNOW STORMS. Men of the Quartermaster's Department Are Shown Salvaging Collapsed Tents. (© Western Newspaper Union.)

MONSTER BRITISH FIELD PIECE GOING FORWARD TO ITS POSITION ON THE FLANDERS FRONT. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

THE NEW BOARD OF EDUCATION OF SEVEN MEMBERS WHICH SUCCEEDS THE FORMER BOARD OF FORTY-SIX MEMBERS.

Seated, Left to Right, Are: Joseph Yeska, Manhattan, Mrs. Issac F. Russell, Brooklyn, Arthur S. Somers, Brooklyn, President of the Board; Mrs. Emma L. Murray, Manhattan, and George J. Ryan of Queens; Standing: Anning S. Prall, Richmond, and Frank D. Wiley, Bronx. (© International Film Service.)

JUSTICE JACOB PANKEN, First Socialist Jurist to be Elected in New York City, Takes His Seat on the Municipal Court Bench. (© International Film Service.)

RICHARD MEAD ATWATER III, of Scarsdale, N. Y., Youngest Member of the Rocky Mountain Club, Who Won the French War Cross for "Unswerving Devotion to Duty Under the Heaviest Shell Fire and Gas Attacks," Before He Was 17 Years Old, and Is Said to be the Youngest Person of Any Nationality to Whom the War Cross Has Been Awarded. Disqualified by Reason of His Youth from Enlisting in the United States Army, He Has Joined the Royal Flying Corps, Canadian Division, and Is Now Training at Camp Borden, Ontario. (Aiman & Company.)

SIR JOSHUA REYNOLDS, P. R. A.—BY HIMSELF To Be Shown in the Coming Exhibition at the American Art Galleries of the Kleinberger Galleries Collection of Old Masters. (Laurence X. Champeau.)