

REFUGEE CHILDREN OF NANCY TRANSFERRED ACROSS FRANCE TO DINARD, BRITTANY, TO BE EDUCATED UNDER FRENCH TEACHERS, the American Red Cross Contributing Food, Clothing, and Medical Care to the Little Colony. Captain Moore and American Red Cross Nurses Are Standing in the Right Foreground. (International Film Service.)

AMERICAN WOUNDED ARRIVING AT A FIELD HOSPITAL "SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE." (© Committee on Public Information.)

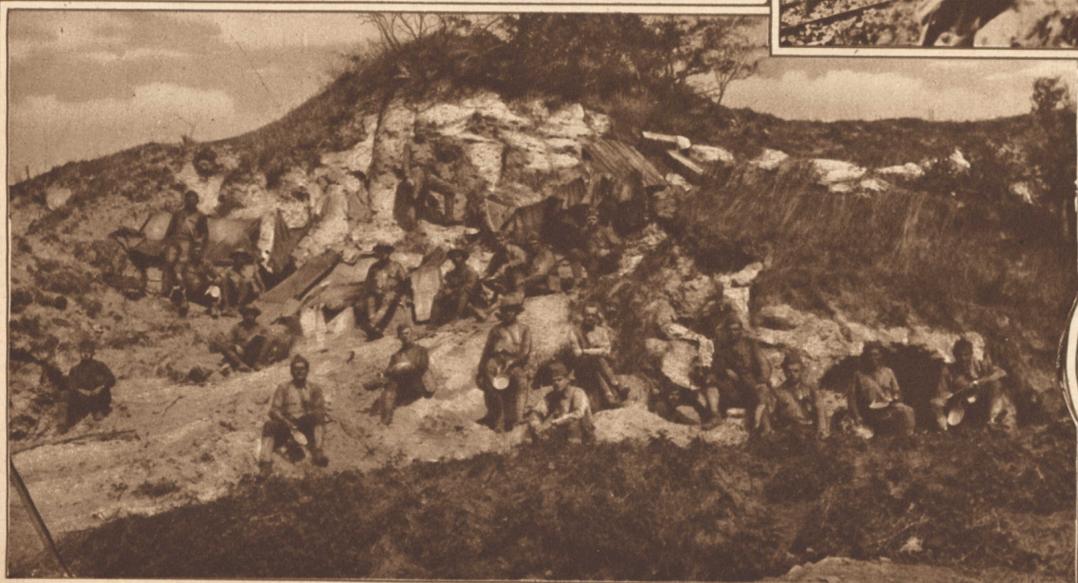

LITVINOFF, Bolshevik "Ambassador," About to Leave London on His Way to Russia, Is Detained by a British Detective Who Is Subjecting His Papers to a Close Scrutiny.

AMERICAN PRIVATE OF A HEAD-QUARTERS TROOP TAKING A LESSON IN FRENCH, WITH SMALL FRENCH URCHINS AS HIS INSTRUCTORS. (© Committee on Public Information.)

AMERICANS DEFENDING A HIGHWAY EAST OF SAN MIHIEL AND MILES WITHIN THE OLD GERMAN POSITIONS. Behind Them Runs a Narrow-Gauge Railway Constructed by the Germans for Transportation of Supplies. (© Committee on Public Information.)

THE CHOW HOUR WITH THESE AMERICANS, IN THEIR DUGOUTS ON THE NEW ALLIED BATTLELINE, WITH SAN MIHIEL AT THEIR BACKS, AND WITH THEIR FACES TOWARD METZ.

(Photos International Film Service.)

AMERICAN PATROL IN THE SAN MIHIEL SECTOR TAKING COVER IN ONE OF THEIR OWN CAPACIOUS SHELLHOLES.