A red-bannered Bolshevist parade in Moscow passing under the very walls of that citadel of established law and order, the Kremlin, Acropolis of old Moscow and for centuries the centre of Russian political and religious life. Underwood & Underwood.

Our one-time national court tennis champion, Lieut. Jay Gould, one of the first officers to return from the Archangel district of Russia, where he served on the staff of Rear Admiral McCully. Lieut. Gould came back on the troopship Haverford, one of the first transports to land its overseas human cargo at the port of Philadelphia.

President Wilson goes over the top—that is, from the rear seat of his motor—to acknowledge the cheers of the crowds gathered to greet him along the line of march from the railway station to the palace at Turin, Italy.
Western Newspaper Union.

A picture of a most unusual flag made by Madame Jeanne Labric and recently presented by the French Women's League of Paris to Mrs. Wilson. There is not a single piece of fabric in the banner; it is embroidered throughout, and has no reverse side.
Western Newspaper Union.

The most glorious silk conceptions for Spring 1919

"MOON-GLO" for Everywear

"Moon-Glo" Meteor
"Moon-Glo" Taffeta
"Moon-Glo" Satin
"Moon-Glo" Crepe
Fabrics of proven worth—

FAN-TA-SI for Sportswear

The "most joyous" of all sports fabrics—
Ask at the smartest shops for these fabrics either in apparel or by the yard—You will find the label in apparel—
By the yard—the name on the selvage—

MIGEL SILKS
ORIGINALITY-QUALITY
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

Also maker of
"Pierrette" for Sheerwear
"Hindu" for Summerwear

J. Migel

Trade Marks Reg. U. S. Pat. Off. New York