MISS MARGARET WILSON, ELDEST DAUGHTER OF THE PRESIDENT,
Firing the Pistol Which Started the Events of the Central High School Athletic League Meet in Washington, Large Numbers of Army, Navy, and Diplomatic Officials Witnessing the Feats of Physical Strength and Skill. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

MOST NOTED RIFLE SHOTS OF THE COUNTRY, FROM BOTH CIVILIAN AND SERVICE RANKS, Contesting at the Caldwell Range in the National Matches, the Greatest in the History of the Country

ALABAMA'S FAVORITE SONS: UNITED STATES SENATOR JOHN H. BANKHEAD, FLANKED ON EITHER SIDE BY HIS SONS, COLONEL H. M. BANKHEAD, U. S. A., AND CONGRESSMAN WILLIAM B. BANKHEAD.
(International Film Service.)

MRS. E. C. CROSSMAN,
Wife of Captain Crossman, U. S. A., and One of the Best Women Rifle Shots in the Country, Competing in the National Matches.
(© Keystone View Company.)

CAPTAIN L. H. BURKHARDT
of the Florida Civilian Team, Here for the National Rifle Matches, Accompanied by "Bull's Eye," the Team's Mascot from the Everglades.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

ADA MAE WEEKS,
in "Listen Lister," at the Knickerbocker Theatre.
(Abbe.)

MISS TALLULAH BANKHEAD,
Daughter of Congressman W. B. Bankhead, and Granddaughter of Senator Bankhead of Alabama, Who Has Assumed the Leading Feminine Role in "39 East" at the Maxine Elliott Theatre.
(Alfred Cheney Johnson.)

FILIPINO SHARPSHOOTERS COMPETING WITH THEIR CONTINENTAL AMERICAN COUNTRYMEN AT THE CALDWELL RANGE.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)